The 1986-1987 Yearbook Staff
proudly presents
THE ORACLE

O Hail to thee O Liberty!
May we be always true to thee.
Ever striving for thy right,
We pledge allegiance all our lives;
And the truths that we learn here,
Will guide us onward through the years.
Alma Mater, glorious name,
We proudly seek to spread thy fame.

From left to right: The team lining up against Champion; Marla; Santina; Shelly and her father; Heidi; Angela; Deana and Mary.

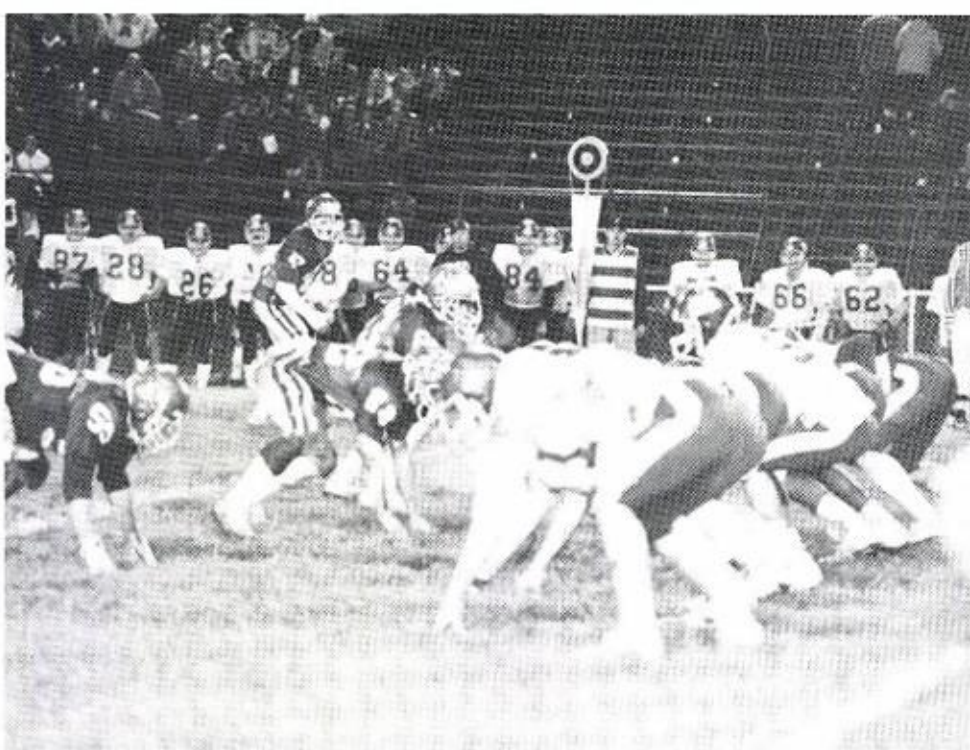

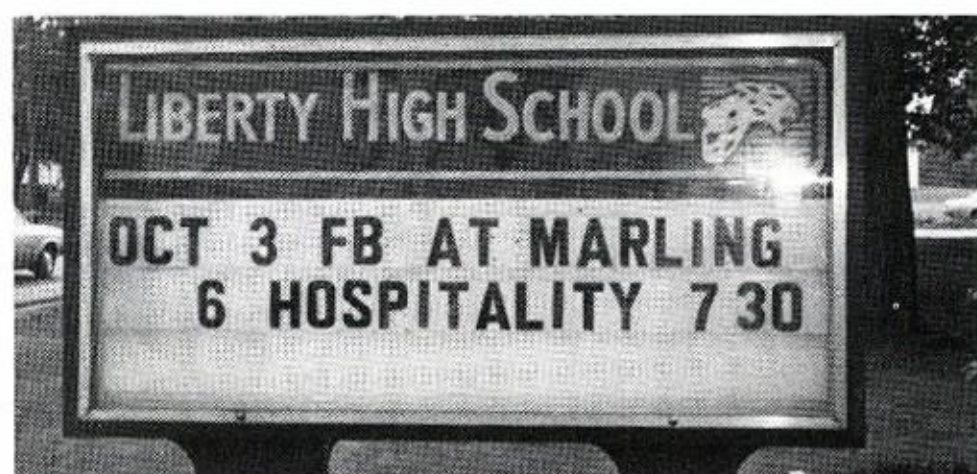

The 1986 Homecoming activities at LHS were very exciting. Although the floats from each grade were all good, when the judging was over and the smoke had cleared the seniors were the ultimate winners. At the same time, Heidi Crain, Angela Lavorata, Deana Franceschelli, Mary Marquez, Santina Belcik, Shelly Zocco, and Marla D'Andrea represented the senior class as the 1986 Homecoming Court. As the night came to a close Shelly Zocco was crowned the 1986 Homecoming Queen. From left to right: Deana, Shelly, Shelly being crowned, Michelle Pavlock, Mary, and the Court.

Great Looks By Frank

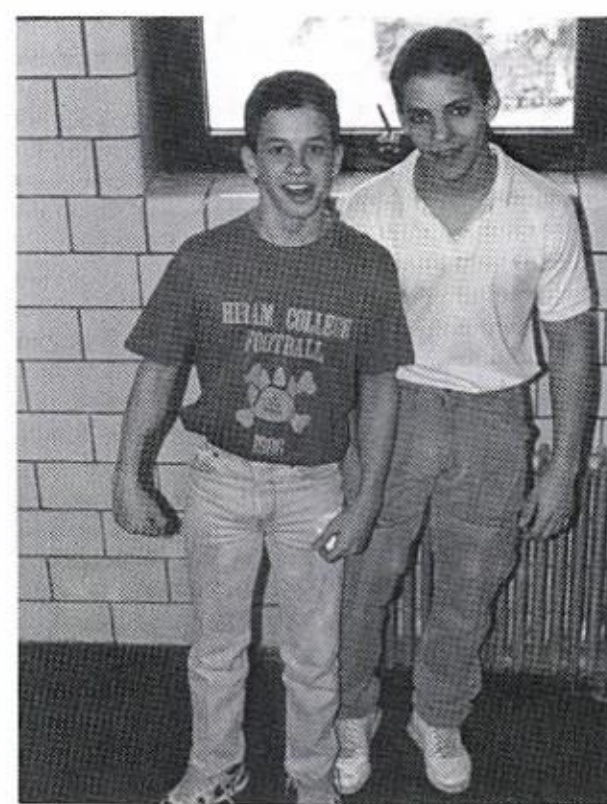

Camera shy? Not me - Hi I'm Frank Gaglino and these are my wood shop - uh, sorry Mr. Latessa, I mean wood lab protective safety glasses; aren't they swell? I just love the way they match my shirt!

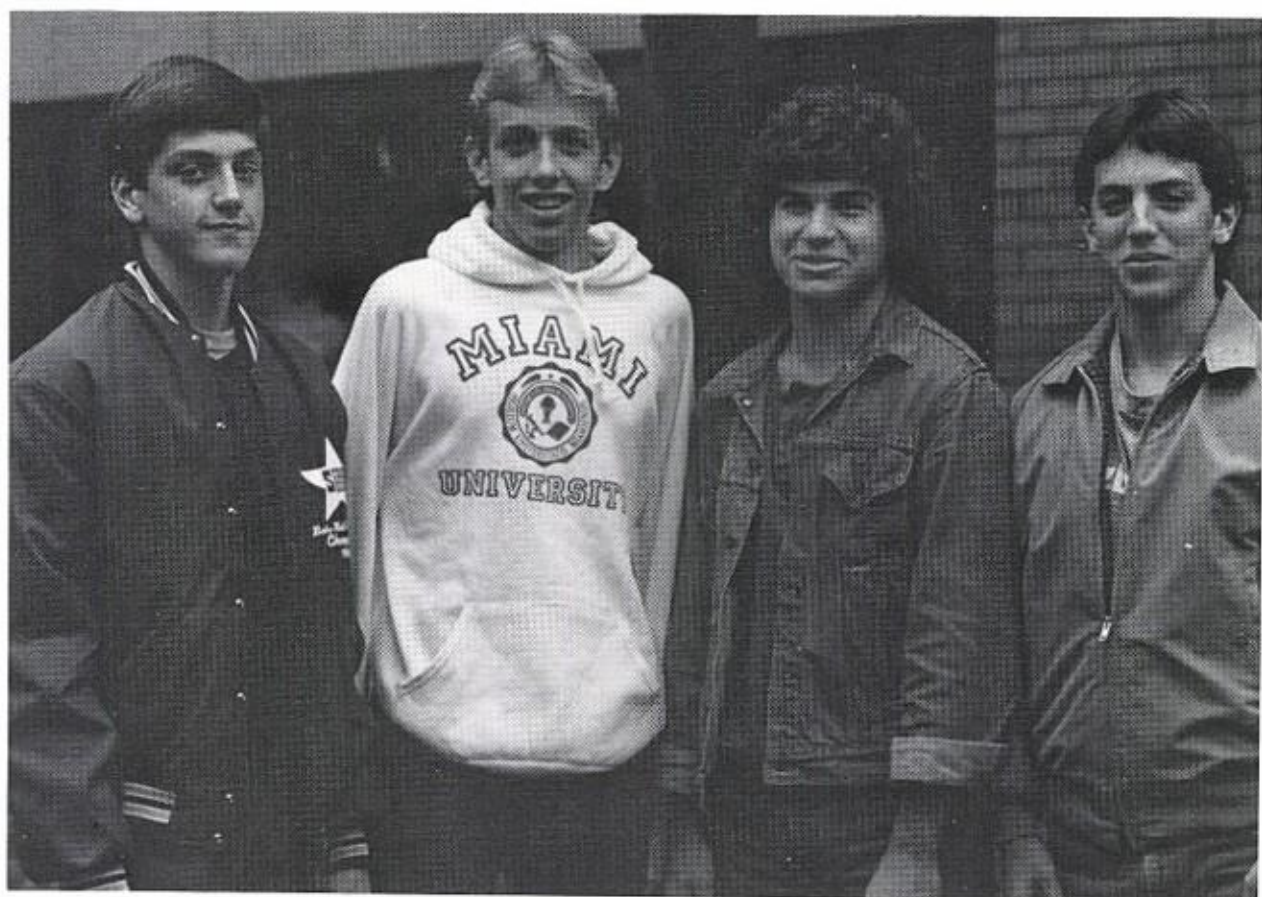

Chris Temekloff and Tracy Millerman are looking swell. Cammie Sperling and Tim Morris lean on each other. Nate Olin and Rich Pazol show us their Physics project. Danny Conanico and Dina Maiorana hang out in the library. Bill Binicke: no smoking in the boys room. Ted Russel and Jodi Julian with mysterious smiles. Hey Chizmar, what's in the locker. Donny Cononico and Geno Leshnack, cousins forever!

FAMILY SPORTS

Girls Cross Country State Runner-Up

The '86-87 Girls CC team had a very successful season under Coach Rupert. They were league champs and State Runner-up. Team members are: Jill Banner, Angela Maiorana, Michelle Lloyd, Heather Johnson, Jackie Brown, Trisha Rizer, Santina Belcik, Leah Neville, Michele Illincik, Lori Johnson, Laura Santagata, Andrea Anderson, Suzi Skolnick, and Michelle Rogers.

Boys Cross Country - Runnin' To Win

Cross Country pyramid: Bottom left N. Olin, R. Brauer, J. Olin: 2nd row J. Haffely, H. Wilkonson: Top B. Williams

The '86 Boys Cross Country team had another good season finishing with a record of 13-11. This season marks the 23rd consecutive winning season for the Cross Country program at LHS. Senior Nate Olin led the team throughout the season with many fine performances. Juniors Rob Brauer, Jeff Haffely, and Brian Williams, Sophomores Josh Olin, and Harry Wilkonson all had very good seasons. Next year should be another good season.

MATCH POINT

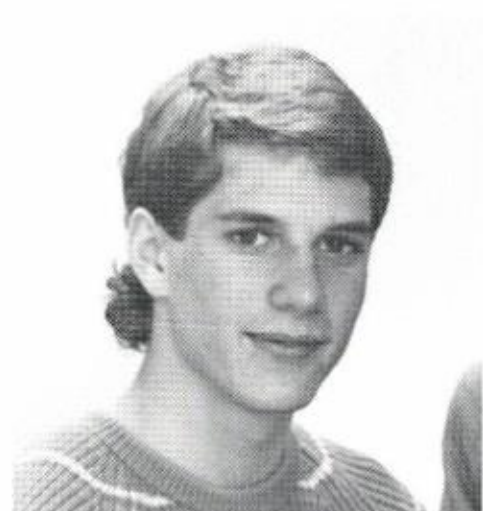

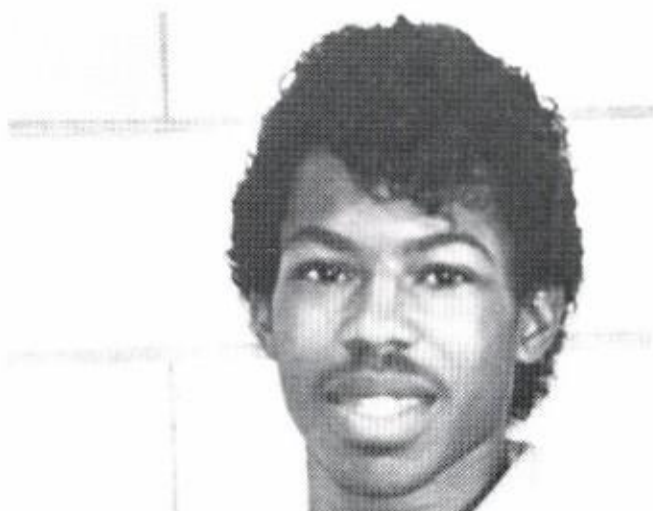

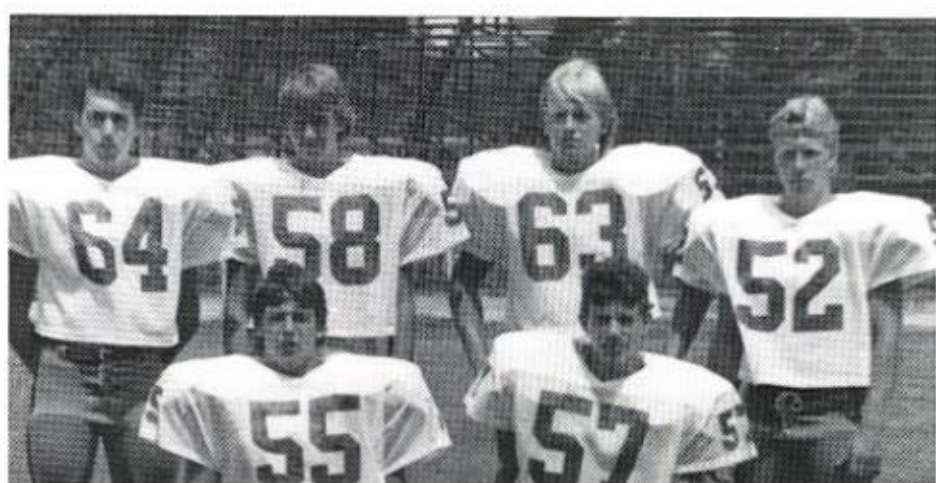

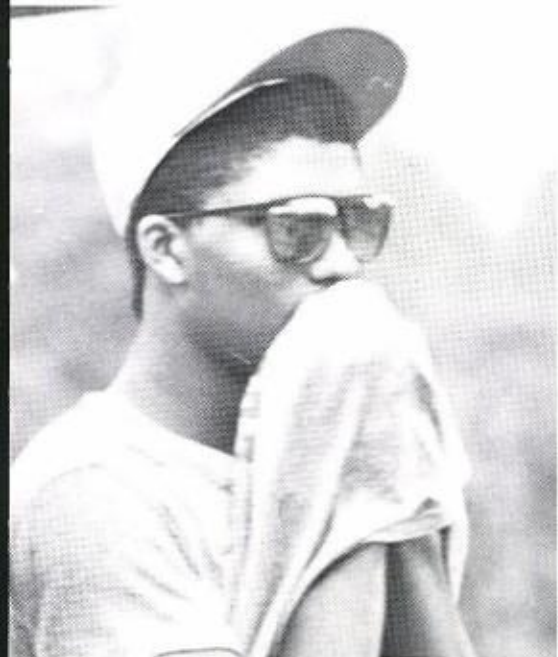

P. Cinelli, J. Kirchner, L. Peters, S. Roth, L. Manchester, T. Knox, V. Parchuri

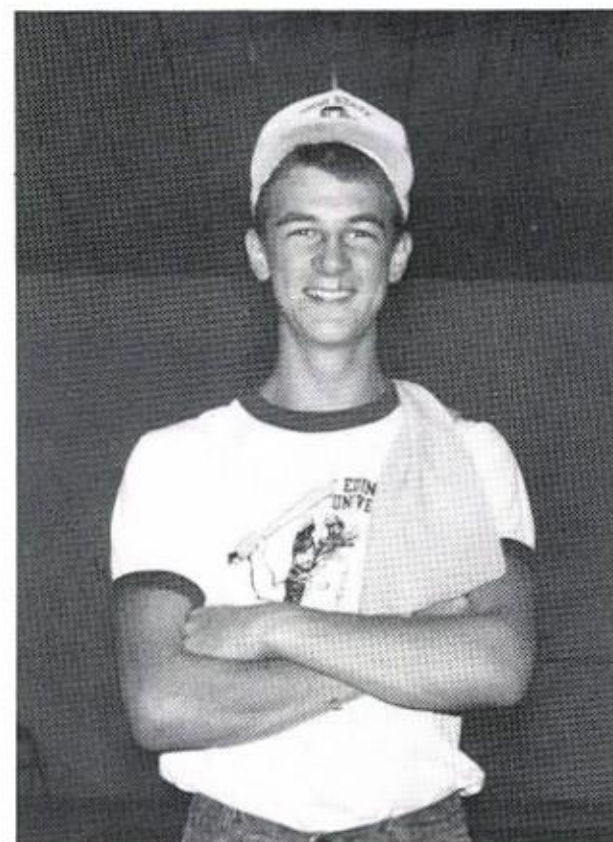

The 1986 Girls' Tennis Team consisted for the most part of underclassmen who were able to gain valuable experience for next year. Good luck to all the returning lettermen and to all future tennis stars that will be joining the team in the fall.

FALL INTO SPORTS

LHS On The

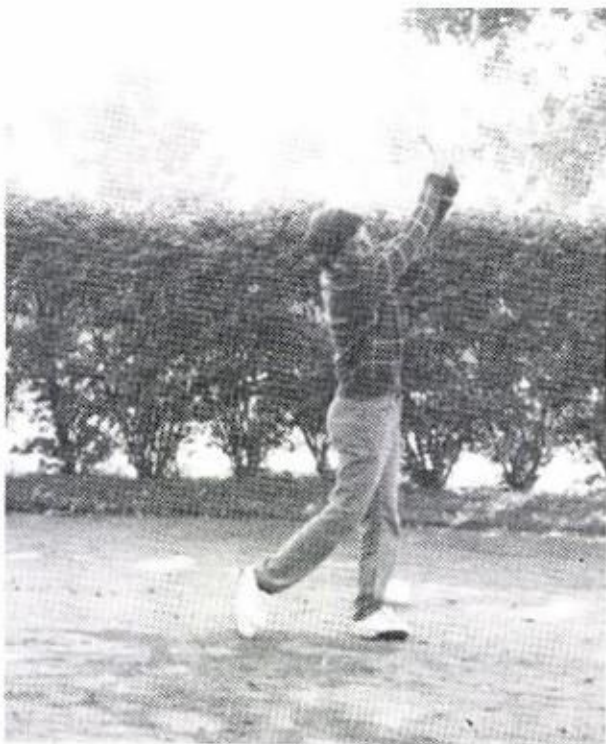

Golf Facts

Success found its way to the 1986 Golf Team along with improvement and fun. Under the guidance of Mr. Wagner, the team captured the Avalon District Tournament, finished in third place in Regional competition at Tannenhau, and ranked 11th in AA action in all of Ohio. Senior John Matheny, lead the team to an undefeated season in the Trumbull AA League. According to Coach Wagner, the team will miss Matheny's medal-winning performance. However, Mike copich, Tony Misciskia, and Sarah Butcher hold great promise in continuing the Matheny/Liberty tradition. Both the team and coach feel optomistic about next year. With fresh talent in players like Todd Callen, Chris McNeil, and Joe Cohn, a state victory is undoubtedly in reach. Of particular interest are the 1986 letter and certificate winners. Lettermen (and women) include Steve Willis, John Matheny, Adam Hollander, Jim Watt, Robert Richardson, Mike Copich, Tony Misciskia, Craig Peters, and Sarah Butcher. The remaining members were recognized with certificates for their achievements and contributions. These golfers include Mike Mamrick, Chris McNeil, Todd Callen, and Joe Cohn. With another successful season completed and celebrated. Coach Wagner and next year's team anxiously await the opportunity for the State title and another victorious year.

New Coaching Staff Takes Control

The Leopard football coaching staff went through some major changes for 1986. Greg May, a Physical Education Teacher at Girard, took over at the head coaching position. Coach May and his coaching staff took control in June, and not to long after that, official summer practice started.

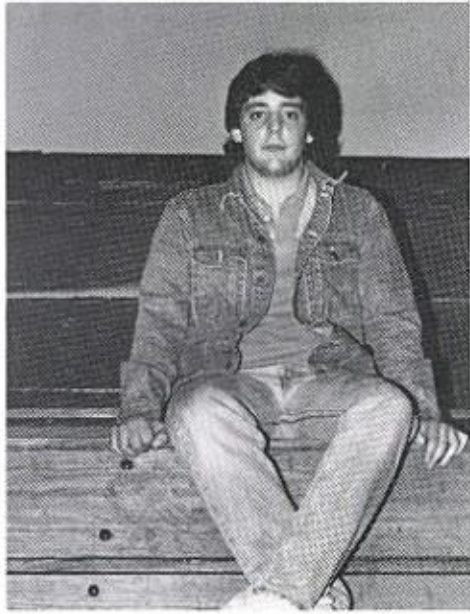

Although the Leopards season was not as successful as hoped for, Coach May was happy with the improvement of the team in general.

1st Row: B. Macsuli, G. May, Head coach, E. Sheetz. 2nd Row: J. Detoro, D. Griffi, P. Gabriel, P. Toath, J. Goser.

The Bove

Basketball Manager Scott Bova decided to leave the waterbottles and towels in the locker room for a change and concentrate his managing efforts into making sure everything is running smoothly and no one is stepping out of line—namely Mr. Wilson and Mr. Prince. Where would we be without our Bova?

VYCE In Concert: 1 2 Meny

Liberty High School rocked once again in 1986-87 to the music of VYCE, a local band of six members, some of whom are or have been Liberty students. Dave Hope, Mark Hagan, and Barry Gareb have played with the band in both of this year's concerts staged in the gym, and Dave Gitson and Mike Nagy each played in one of the concerts. The band plays a variety of popular music such as Bon Jovi, Van Halen, and even INXS. VYCE has become a very popular group in our area and now has a large number of fans from high schools in our region. The best of success in the coming years!!

Choir

The 57 members of the Liberty High School Choir had a busy year. In November, the Chamber Choir went to the District Competition at Stambaugh Auditorium. The whole choir performed at the Holiday Concert in December, solo competition in February, plus they sang their hearts out in their winter concert. Finally, their last performance was in May at the Spring Concert. Sherry Snyder and Julie Lehto were the accompanists for the choir.

Quiet I'm Thinking

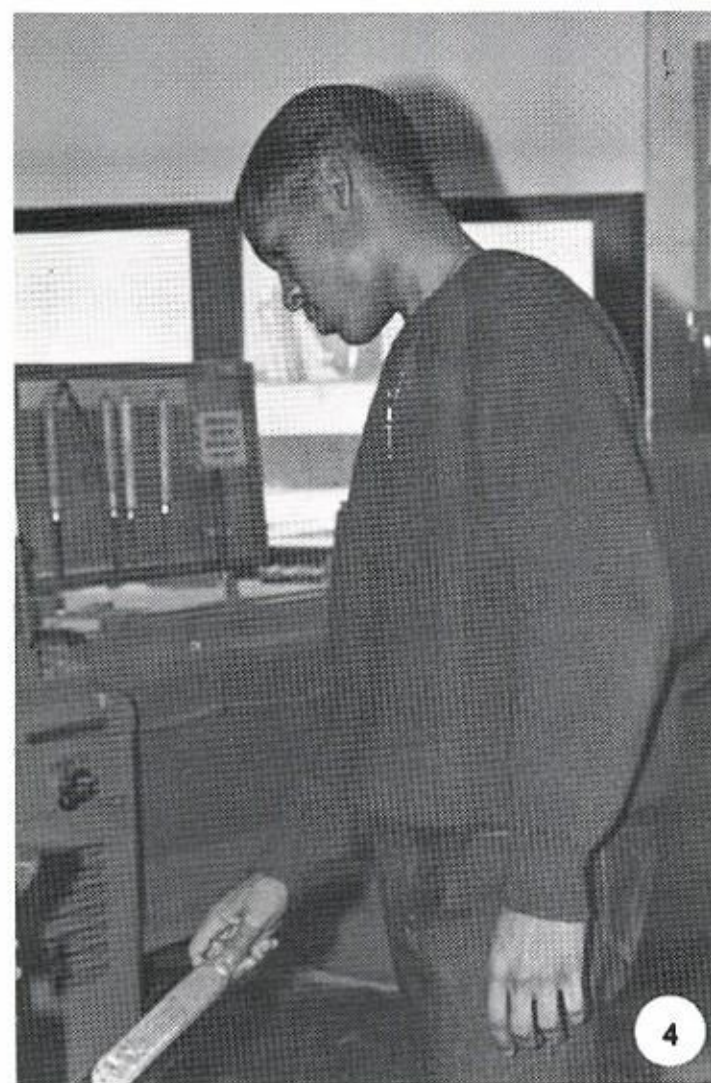

All freshmen listen to the valuable words of their teachers at all times-Fact or Fiction? Laura Manchester looks like she'd rather be swimming some laps than listening to this particular lecture-so much for the attentive student. That makes one for Fiction.

Jim Bogan In Action

The L.H.S. swim teams have never been known for having much depth and therefore much of a winning season, but this year the turnout for both the boys and the girls teams nearly doubled that of previous years and helped to edge the boys on to four season victories and one tie and led the girls in their efforts in defeating both Coventry and Sharon. The Leopards were led this year by Senior co-captains Mike Mamrick and David Heninger for the boys, and Christa Cywinski and Kara Ricciuti for the girls. Other standouts that helped to pace this years team were Joel Politi, Charlie Stanier, Michelle Mamrick, Lynne Beehly, and Lori Johnson. Although both teams will be losing key members next year, the initial success in what you could call a recruiting year gives the team great hope for the future. Congratulations on terrific season Leopards.

Reading, Writing, And Wrestling

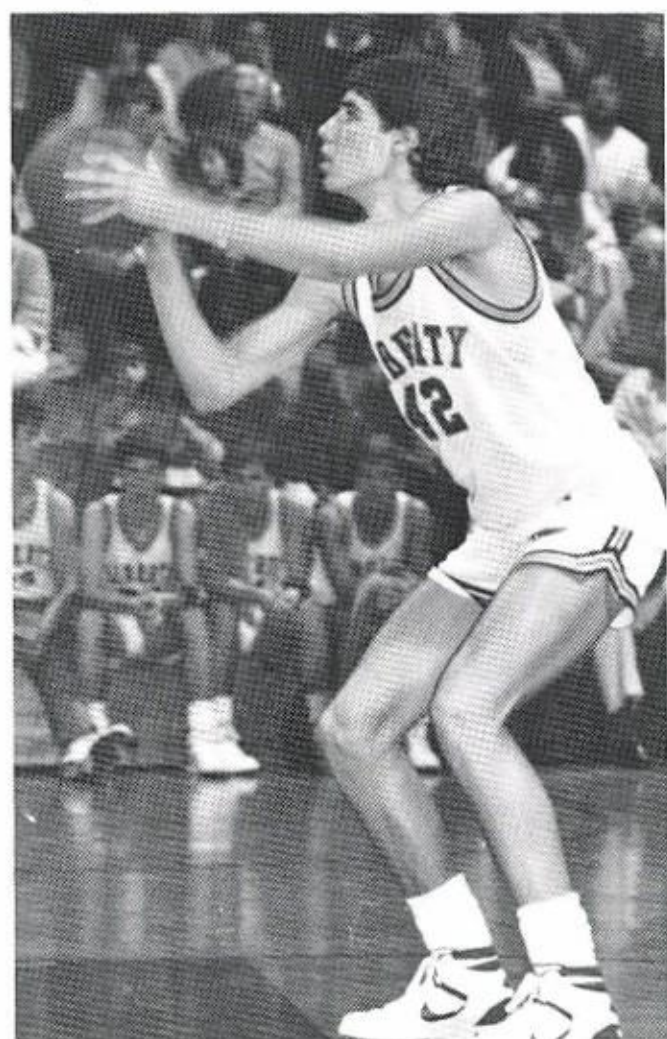

With a winning season, The LHS Varsity Grapplers almost took the E.O.W.L. title once more, but they disappointingly had to settle for league runner-up. Senior members this year include: Brian Demidovich, Kevin Vaupel, Mike Coman, Mike Pizzuto, Rob Garrett, and Jim Martin; Captains: Kevin Vaupel, Mike Coman, and Brian Demidovich. Congratulations on a fine season!!

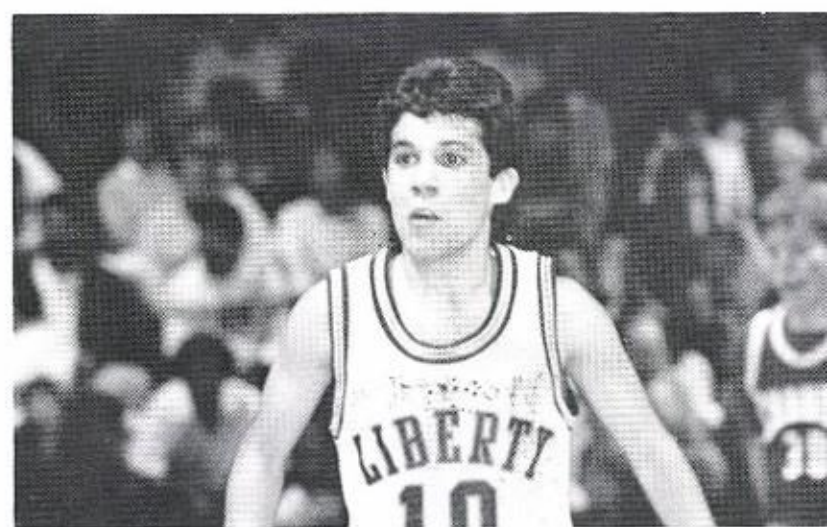

Liberty wrestlers who were successful at Districts include: Tim Vansuch, 3rd; Greg Kale, 4th; Ed Adkins, 2nd; Mike Coman, 4th; Brian Demidovich, 1st; Kevin Vaupel, 4th; and Chuck La-tronico, 4th place. Of these wrestlers, only Demidovich was victorious at regionals, again taking 1st in the 138 lb. class. Advancing to Columbus he won 3rd in the State of Ohio. Congratulations!!!

The young and up-coming stars of the 1986-87 J.V. Basketball team displayed fine talent thru out the season. Judd Rubin, Geno Rice and Dave Shory all performed well, while freshman Rob Richardson, Matt DeSalvo, and Dan Miller all showed great potential. The team finished with a fine 10-10 record.

The Varsity Basketball team would have had an unforgettable season even if it was only because of the great games BEFORE the tournament. Games were sold out and louder cheering was never heard in the Varsity Gym. We won game after game and the players were swept up onto the shoulders of the student body. Thanks also go to the parents for their support throughout the season . . . After winning our AA League, the Leopards moved on to District Competition where they eventually beat GL-RARD in an awesome victory claiming the title of District Champs, the first in almost 20 years. The community rallied around the players as they advanced to Regional play in Canton. The McKinley Fieldhouse was near capacity as busloads of fans arrived to support the Leopards in their Victory against Mooney. In a close game with Akron, the boys ended their exceptional season as Regional Runner-up with big plans for next season. WAY TO GO GUYS AND GOOD LUCK!!!

Tryouts were held at the end of last year and Heidi Crain and Kathy Schesler were chosen as this year's co-captians. Practice began in mid-July and by the first football game against Girard the girls were ready to go. One of the activities the girls participated in was attending cheerleading camp at Ohio University. The girls left on Saturday and spent Sunday learning new material. Kathy Schesler stated "We learned some new jumps and moves and we plan on using them in our floor cheers." Also the cheerleaders hosted the annual Homecoming Dance. It was well done and everybody enjoyed themselves. One of the main jobs of the cheerleaders is to plan and prepare for the pep-rallies each Friday. The student body is amist each week due to the exciting pep-rallies. The cheerleaders led us through the football season and on to the basketball season. The girls cheered on the basketball team to district championship and onto the regional playoffs. When the game was over the girls kept up the spirit by cheering "We're proud of our team, we're so proud of our team." This year's squad was responsible for putting the spirit back into L.H.S. Thanks!!!

The Seniors are- H. Crain, W. Dragich, K. Schesler, and D. Young.

FACULTY GIVES SENIORS A

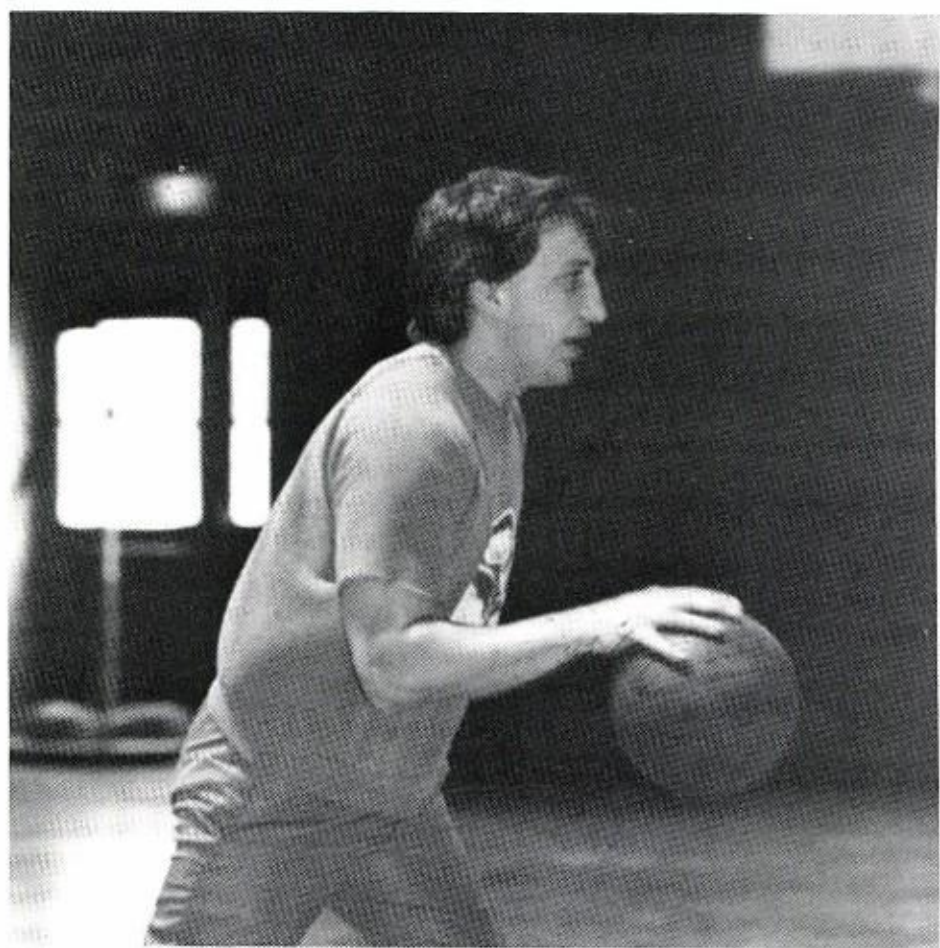

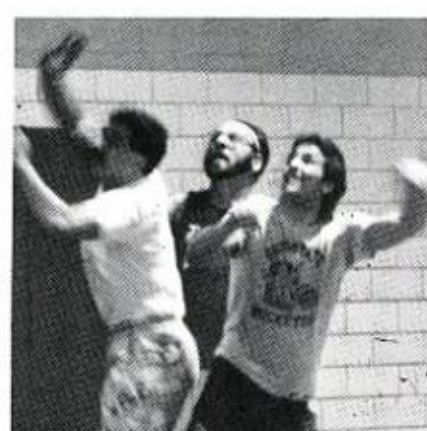

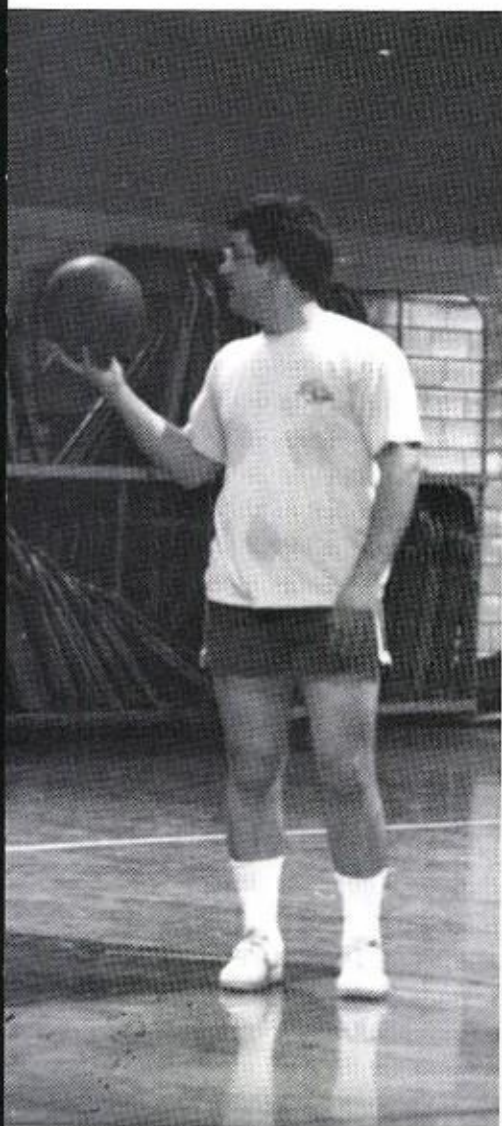

Well, it was youth vs. experience in the First Annual Basketball Face-off. The Senior Boys took on the Liberty teachers, and even Mr. Prince and Mr. Wilson joined in the fun. A big, wild crowd assembled (unofficially, of course) to root on their favorite. When the final hoop was shot the Golden Oldies emerged victorious. Members of the winning team include Thomas, Rupert, Wilson, Prince, Latessa, Ciferno, Jarvis, Kohl, and Berry. Shame-faced Seniors were Dull, Hagan, Shapiro, Russel, ElKhouri, Apple, Alter, Henniger, Peters, Carbonell, and manager Brett Fine.

S.A.D.D.- Students Against Drunk Driving is another club advised by Miss Bramble. This club is concerned with the teenage drinking problem. They put up posters concerning the high number of deaths related to drunk driving. They try to use their influence among the student body to prevent their friends not to be foolish on the weekends. Senior members include: John Bletsch, Nikki Helterbran and Kim Venzen.

JUST SAY NO

Teens For People is a club formed to stop substance abuse in teenagers. This newly formed club meets every Wed. and is advised by Miss Bramble. Teens for People feel that the problems of peer pressure and drugs contribute to the recklessness of teens. Senior member, John Bletsch, states "I think that the club is important to Liberty High School because it alerts students to the fact that they always have the option to say no."

Junior Exec. Officers

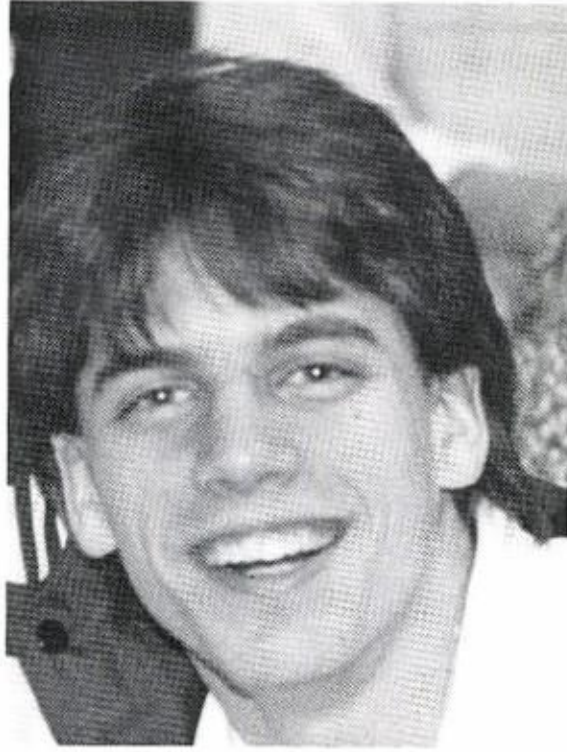

Junior Ex. Was led this year by the following: President Kelly Arbie, Vice President Michelle Mallen, Secretary Cammie Sperling, and Joe DeSalvo treasurer.

This years Junior Executive Committee, under the supervision of Mrs. DeSalvo, worked hard to put on the Prom. Some of their fund-raising activities including selling basketball programs, working in the concessions stand, and raking leaves. They also sponsored a Halloween dance. This group was responsible for all the complicated details of Prom, from the band to the napkins.

Elections for the Senior Executive Committee were held in early October, but the first meeting just never quite took place!! But, still, with a little help from the computer, they managed to get the important business done: namely, the choosing of class flower, class song, class colors, and class motto. Mr. Prince was the supervisor of this elite group.

Senior Class Officers

Senior Class officers are as following: Dina Maiorana, President; Marla D'Andrea, Vice President; Santina Belcik, Secretary; and Joel Politi as Treasurer.

CRICKET CLUB: A TRADITION OF STUPIDITY

The top-secret Cricket Club has been the object of much speculation this year. What is its exact purpose? What goes on behind all those closed doors? And, most importantly, what is a law-abiding citizen like Mr. Purser doing with these weirdoes? Well, our Yearbook Investigation Committee has finally cracked the case. A Cricket Club member is . . . anyone dedicated to the PURSUIT OF SILLINESS. These proud young men and women are pictured at the left. "Gosh, won't Mom be proud . . . !"

CANDIDS

L.H.S. Candid: First we have Mr. Phil Latessa giving us his great smile. Next is Nikki Helterbran trying to fix a drill. Rocky, Deana and Nadine look busy during 6th period shop. Not being able to see the person behind Ed, well, as Dick Van Patten would say "Ed is Enough!" Here is our unknown club, aren't they cute? Rich, Joel, and Danielle showing us how they look during school.

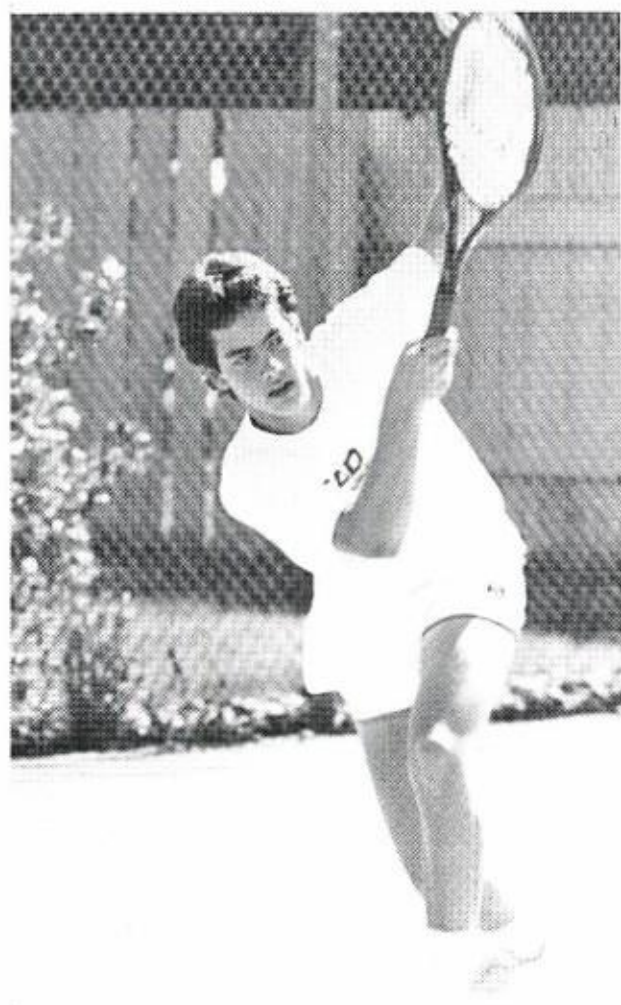

CANDIDS FROM THE INDUSTRIAL LAB: Chris Giampietro shows us the latest fashion in safety galsses. You're such a Giampietro. Bill Deitsch seems to enjoy getting his picture taken. Next is sexy Paul Brown showing his talent in wood cutting. Nick Zagotti "The Gouch" is taking some notes during class, that's a first! Sue Cizmar is working eagerly on the 1987 Oracle. Keep up the good work!! And Last is Jodi Julian and Michelle Wellman attempting to meet the upcoming deadline, but Jodi seems to be too busy with her pop.

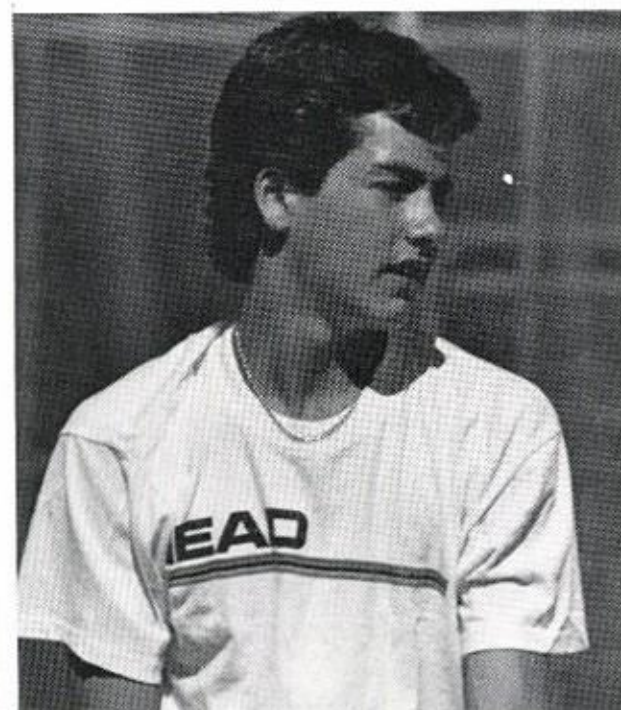

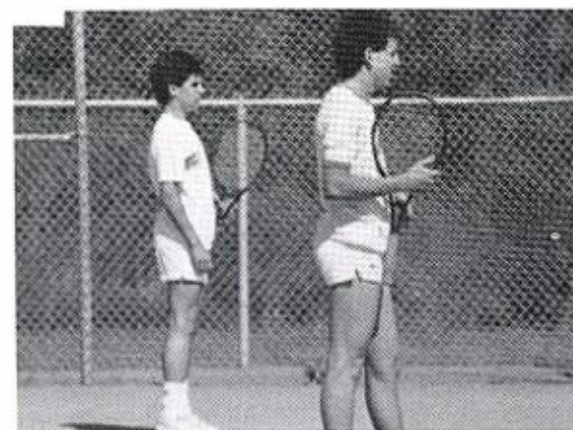

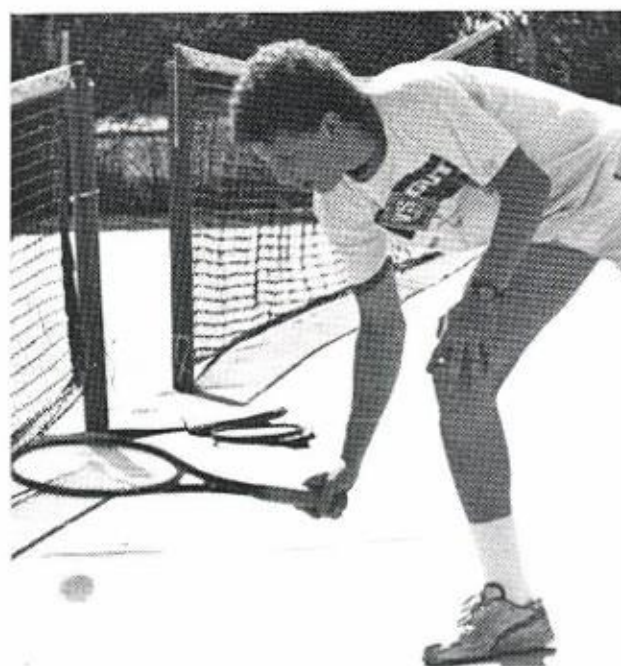

SPRING SPORTS

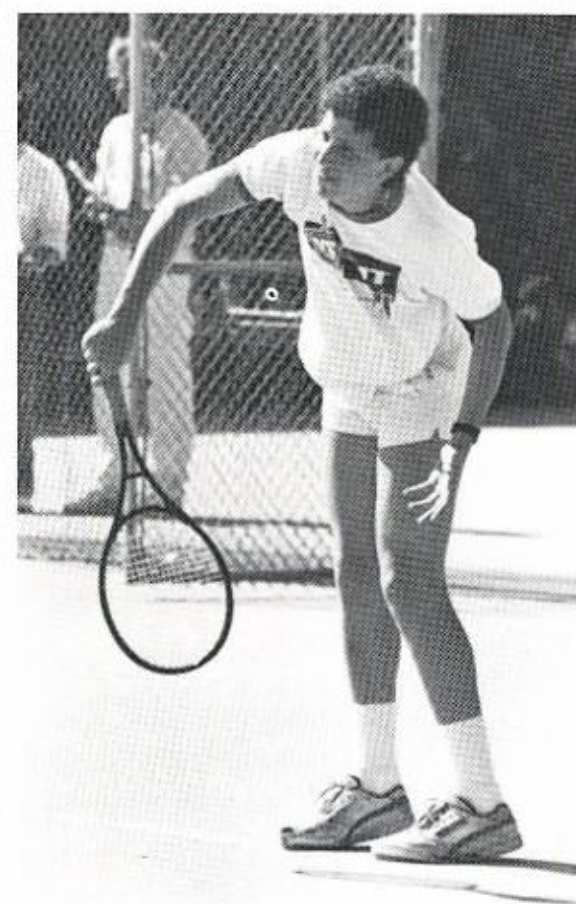

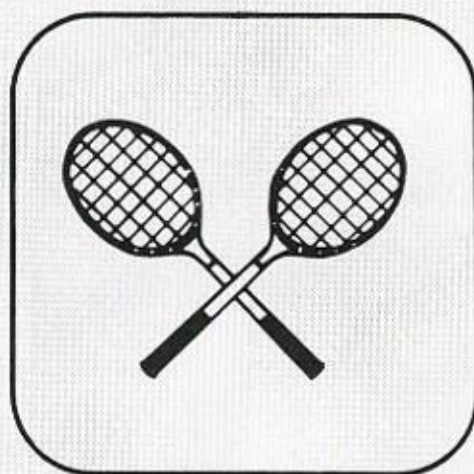

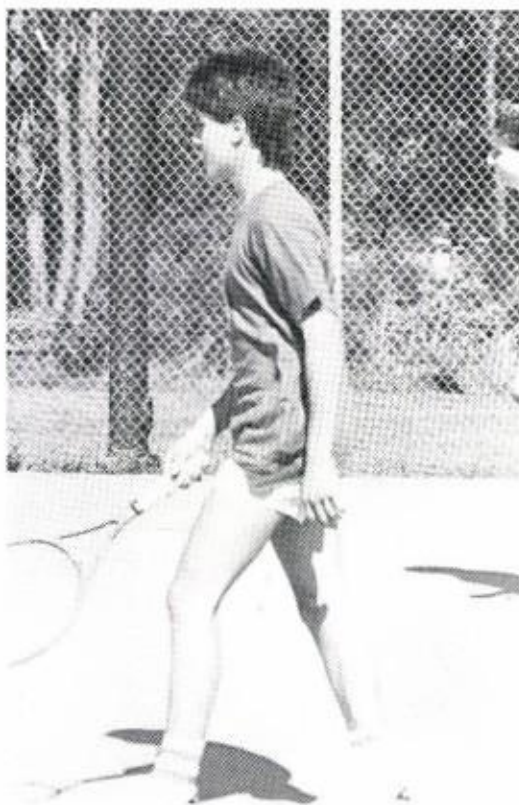

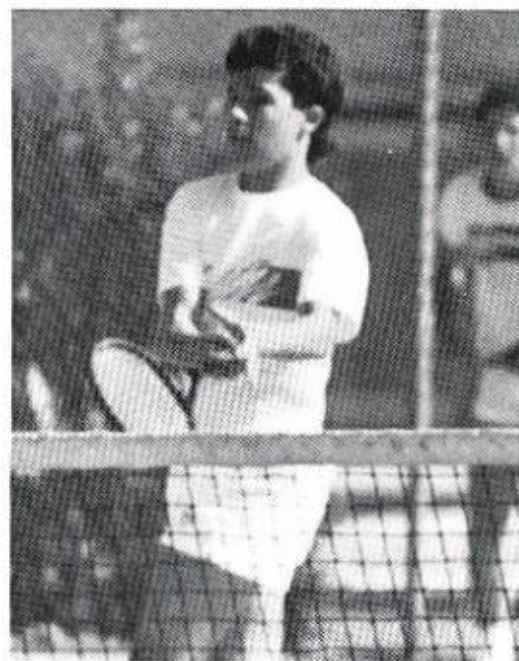

LHS Tennis:

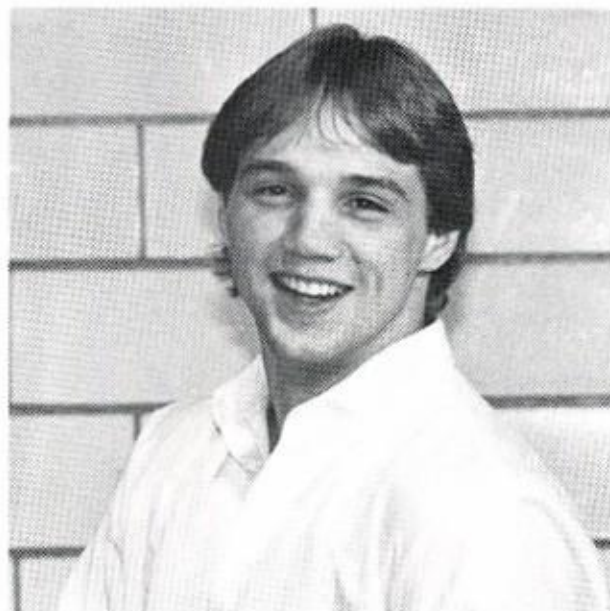

The success of the Boy's Tennis team is probably one of the best kept secrets in Liberty High School. LHS Boy's Tennis, coached for the second year by Barry Barth, successfully coupled old and new talent to insure a winning season. Tom Shapiro, Robert Tamarkin, and John Kannesohn, were among the key returning members. Tom and Robert, in fact, went on to capture the District A-AA Doubles Championship for the second year in a row. Adrian Gomez, Danny Miller, and Charlie Stanier headed the list of successful newcomers. Adrian and Charlie finished second to their own team members in the District A-AA Doubles Finals. Other members of the team include: Yale Levy, Mark Roth, Nagendra Mishr, Mark Wolf, Jeff Levy, Brett Zockle. The boys finished up with a great season and lotsa stock in a good investment for the future. Congrats and Good Luck!

Point, Set, Match

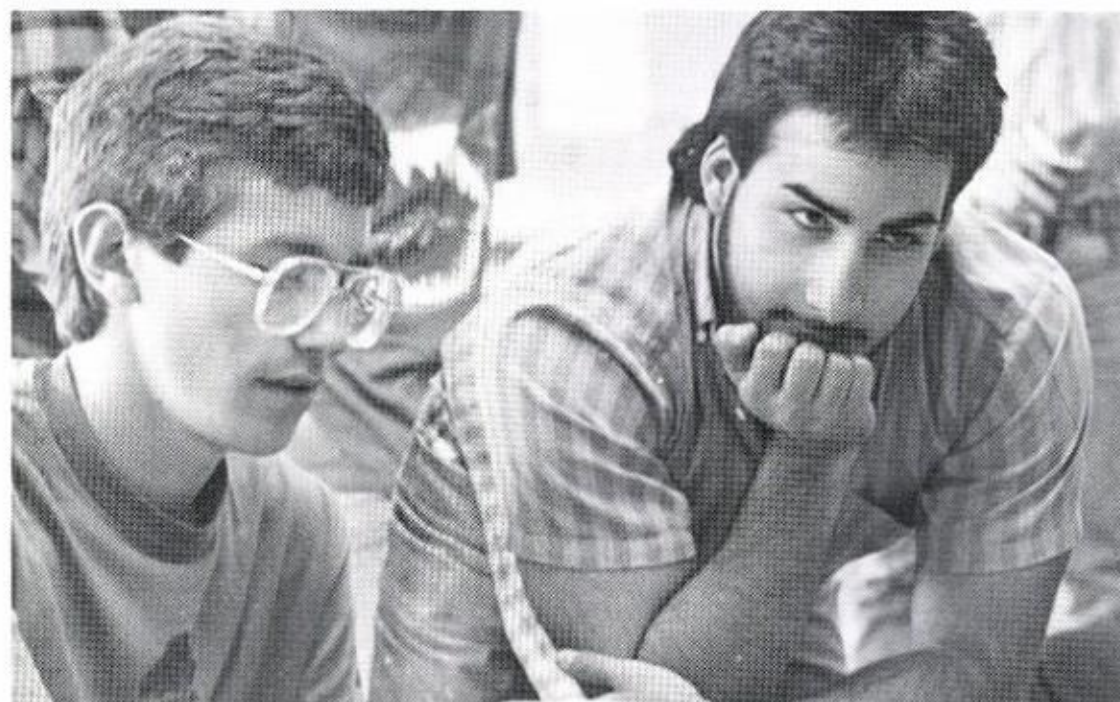

LHS BOYS: BORN TO RUN

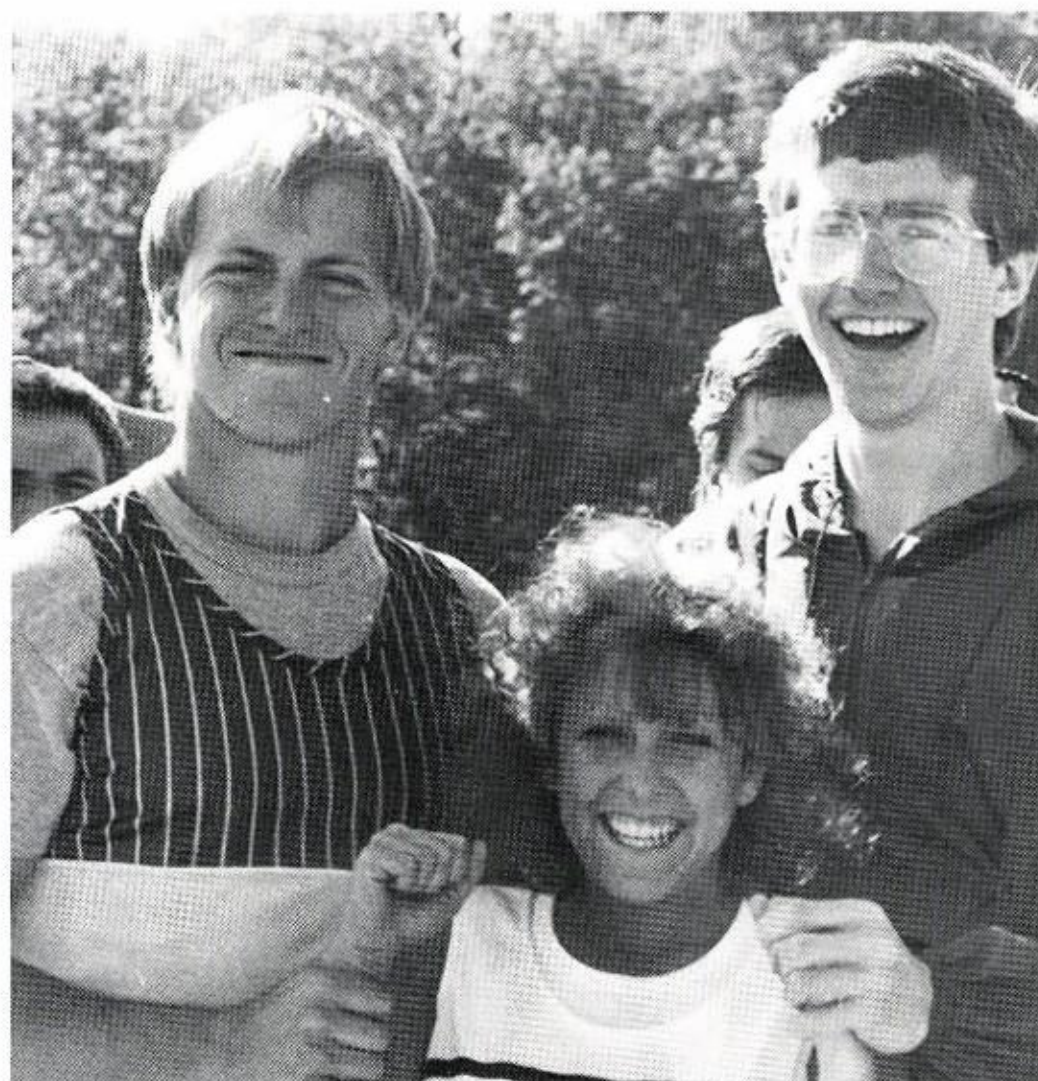

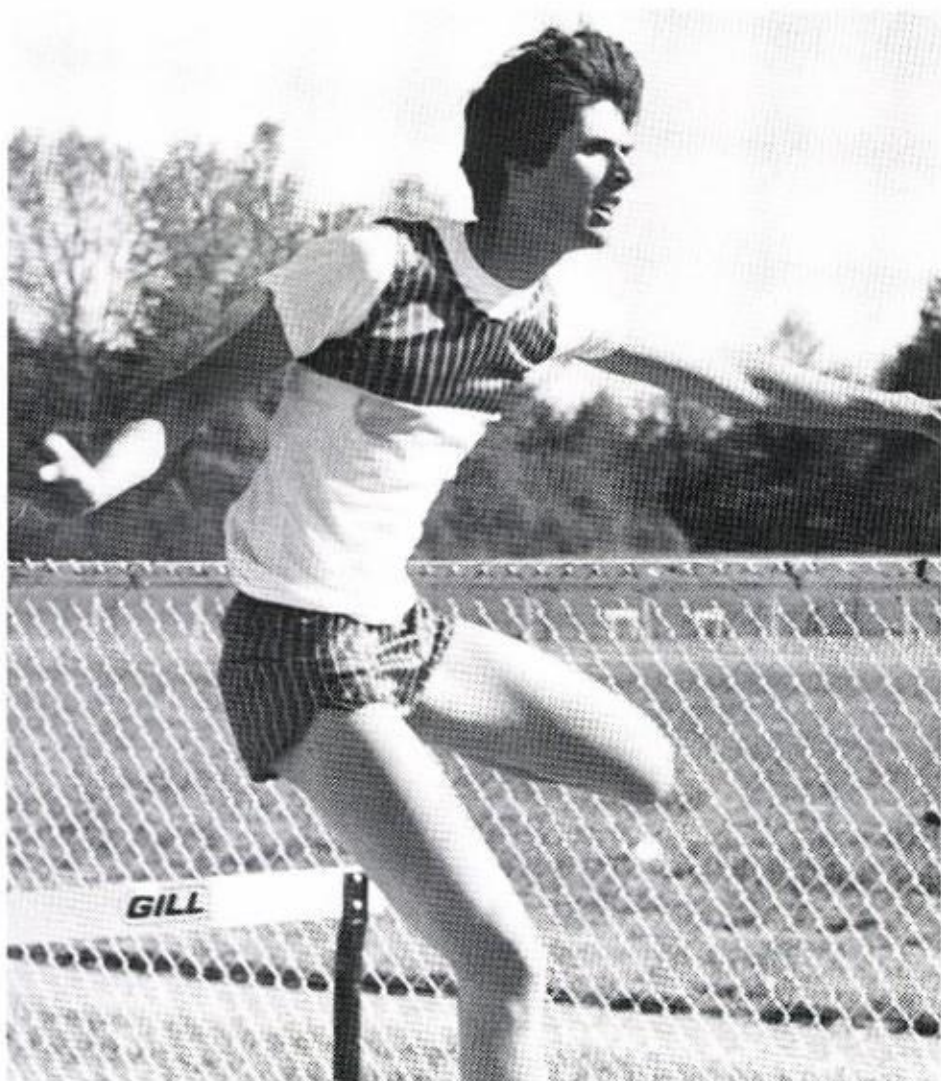

The 1987 boy's track season consisted of many ups and downs. It took some time before the team as a whole realized its potential, but when they did many good things happened. The 400M and 1600M relay teams along with several other individual athletes improved their times all season long and they proved to be successful. Nate Olin, Brian Demidovich, John Altier, and many others contributed to a fine season. Brian Demidovich and Paul Smith ended their season by qualifying for the regional track meet in Akron, Brian in the pole vault and Paul in the 400M run.

TRACK

Girl's Track Team: AA League Runner-Up

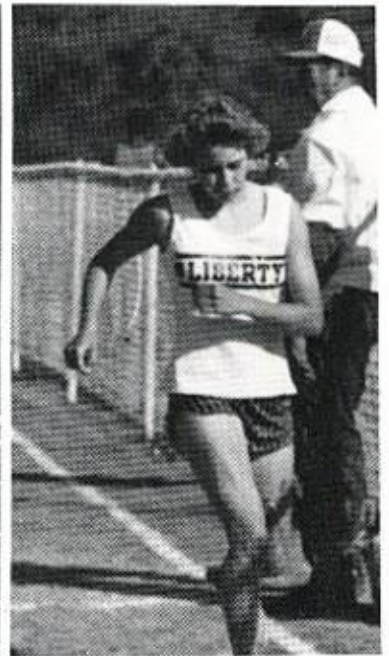

The '87 Lady Leopards Track Team was successful this year. They started off strong and kept the flame lit throughout the season. Seniors A. Anderson & S. Belcik led the team to finish 2nd in the Trumbull "AA" League. Many team newcomers helped contribute to their success. In the District meet the 2 mile relay team qualified for regional competition, and B. Rosenberg qualified in the 300m low hurdles.

Team Work!

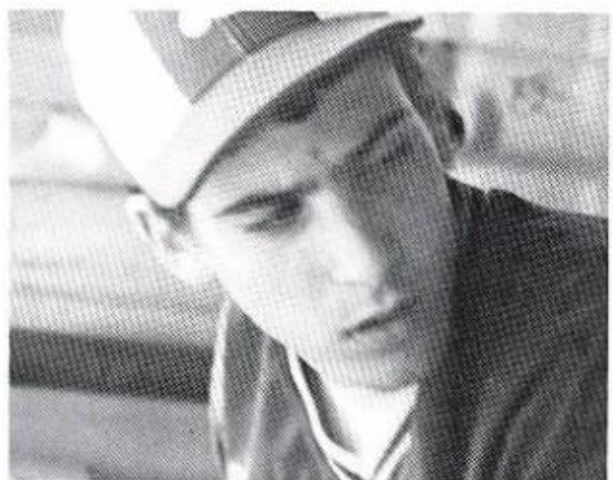

LHS BASEBALL:

The L.H.S. Boys Baseball team under the keen direction of Coach Blanchard recorded an 8-12 record this season. Though their record may not be the best indication, the Leopards carry a number of talented players. Key members to the team include: Steve Rohan (infield), Joe DeSalvo (designated hitter), and Mike Levy (outfielder) who were all named to the all Trumbull AA League, as well as senior Kevin Vaupel and junior Tim Morris who were Honorable Mentions. Good Job guys and Good Luck next season.

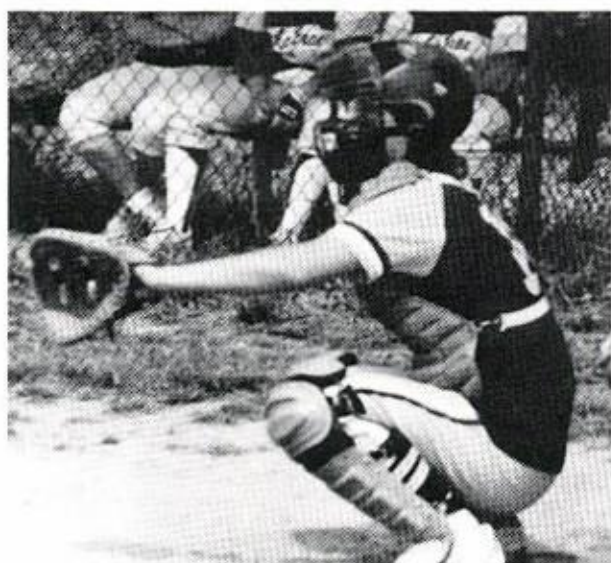

BLANCH'S BOYS

Senior Mike Levy who has played varsity ball for Liberty the past two years was honored this year at the Trumbull Mahoning All Star Game by being named MVP. Among Mike's other distinctions he was captain of this year's team and led the Leopards in hitting, recording a .492 average. Congratulations Mike!!

1987 GIRLS SOFTBALL

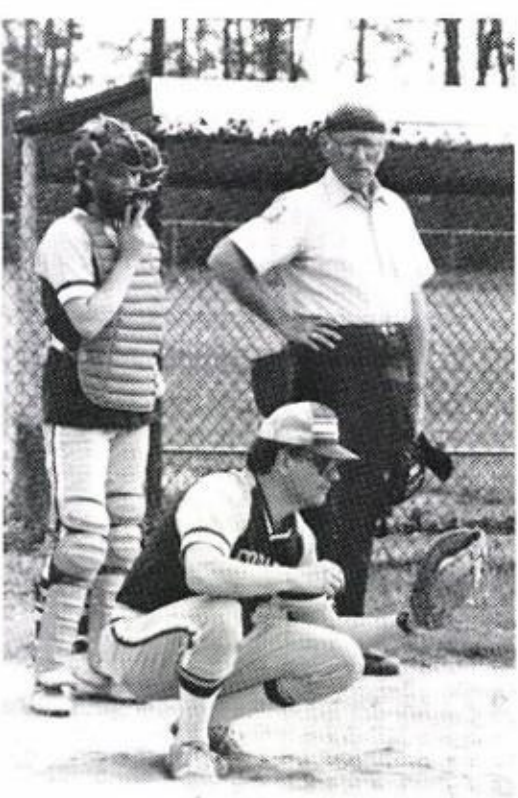

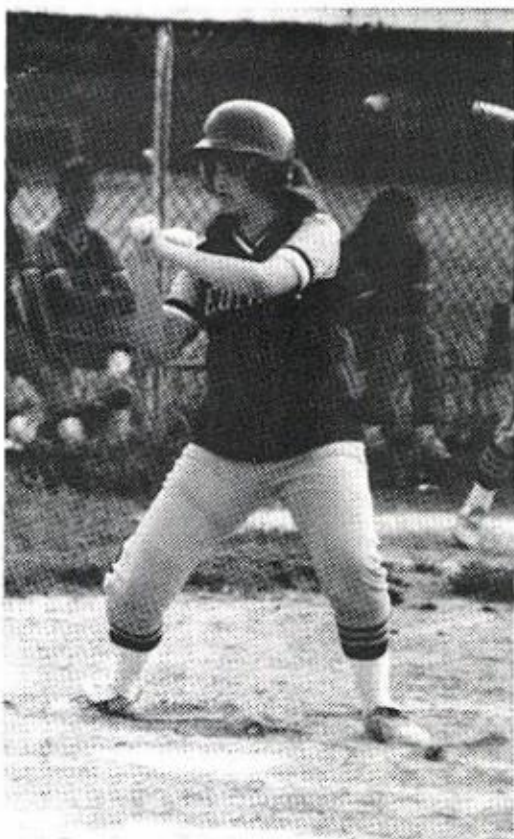

STRIKE THREE . . . YOU'RE OUT!!!

Softball practice started in the last week of February with drills in bunting, fielding, and hitting. The signs were learned and the girls were ready to go. The first six games were canceled or delayed due to rain, but the first game against Newton Falls proved to be successful.

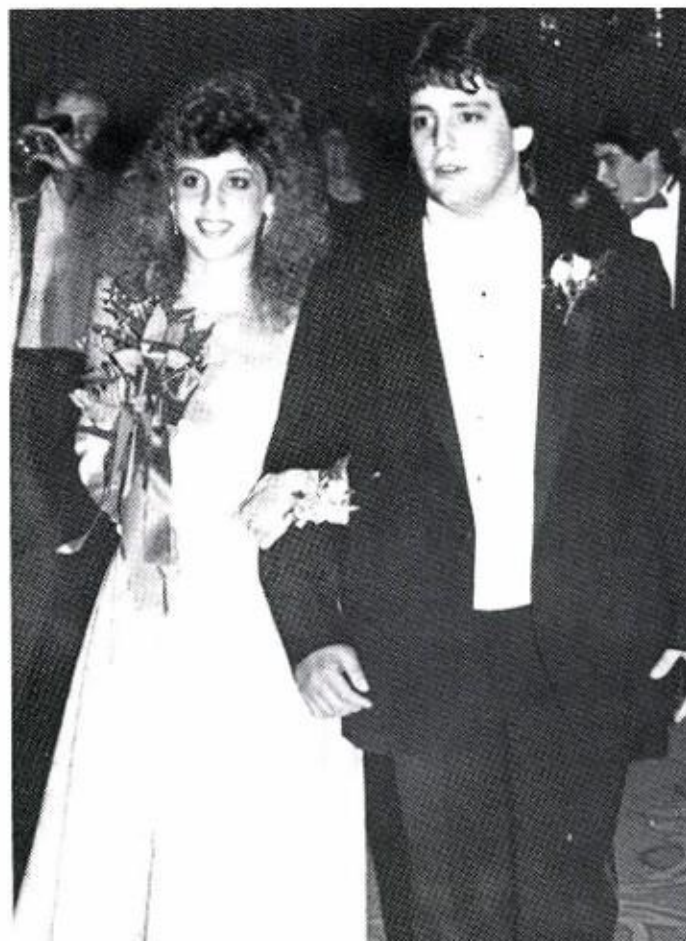

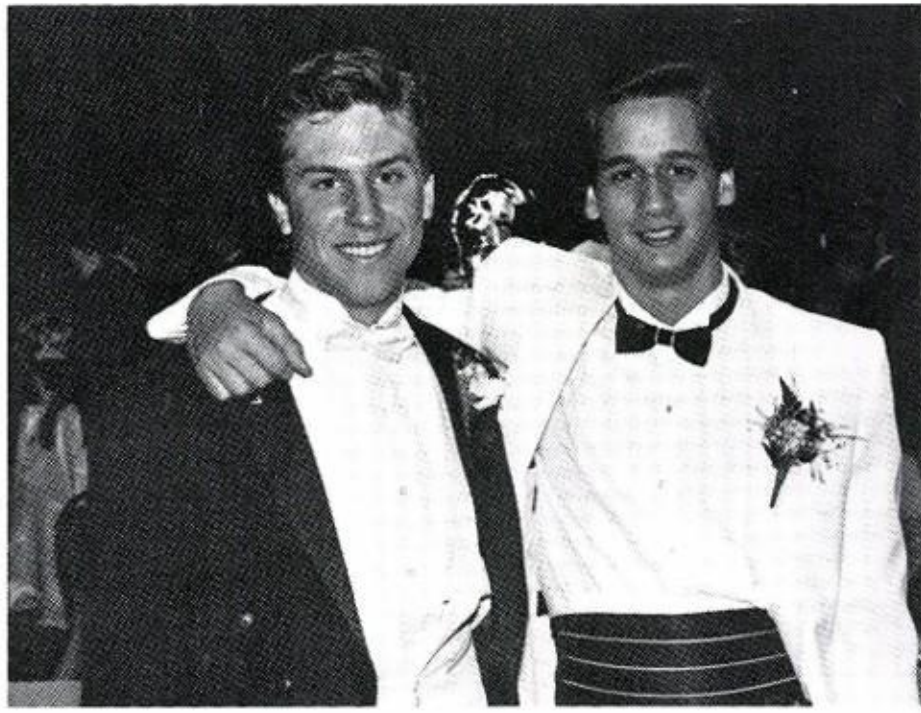

For the first time a JV team was formed. Coach Peter Gabriel was chosen to lead the JVs. The JVs are: Debbie Morrison, Laura Santaga, Pam Paul, Dori Levy, Danielle Tachos, Sarah Butcher, Terry Cummings, Carrie Davis, and Stephnie Roth.

The Varsity was led by Coach Wagner with assistance from John Kosphstophor. Varsity includes: The seniors, Paula Richardson, Kathy Schesler, and Marla D'Andrea. Under classmen include: Lori Coleman, Kathy Keez, Lynne Coleman, Michelle Illencik, Michelle Mallen, Cami Sperling, Debbie Morrison, and Stephnie Roth. Congratulations girls on a fine season!!

This Is The Time To Remember . . .

Senior Royalty

The Juniors put on quite a show this year as they moved our Prom uptown to the chic Metroplex. The theme was "This is the Time to Remember" and the colors were pink and silver. With music by Insane it is no wonder that the dance floor was packed!

But, of course, the main event was the crowning of the Prom King and Queen. Nadine Molner and Mark Hagan, left, were proud to receive this distinction. Other members of the Court included Deana Fransescelli and Brian Demidovich (upper left), Mary Marquez and Mike Coman (upper middle), Heidi Crain and Mark Hagan (upper right), Shelly Zocco and Mike Levy (lower left), Marla D'Andrea and David Dull (lower center), and Nadine Molner and David Greene (lower right).

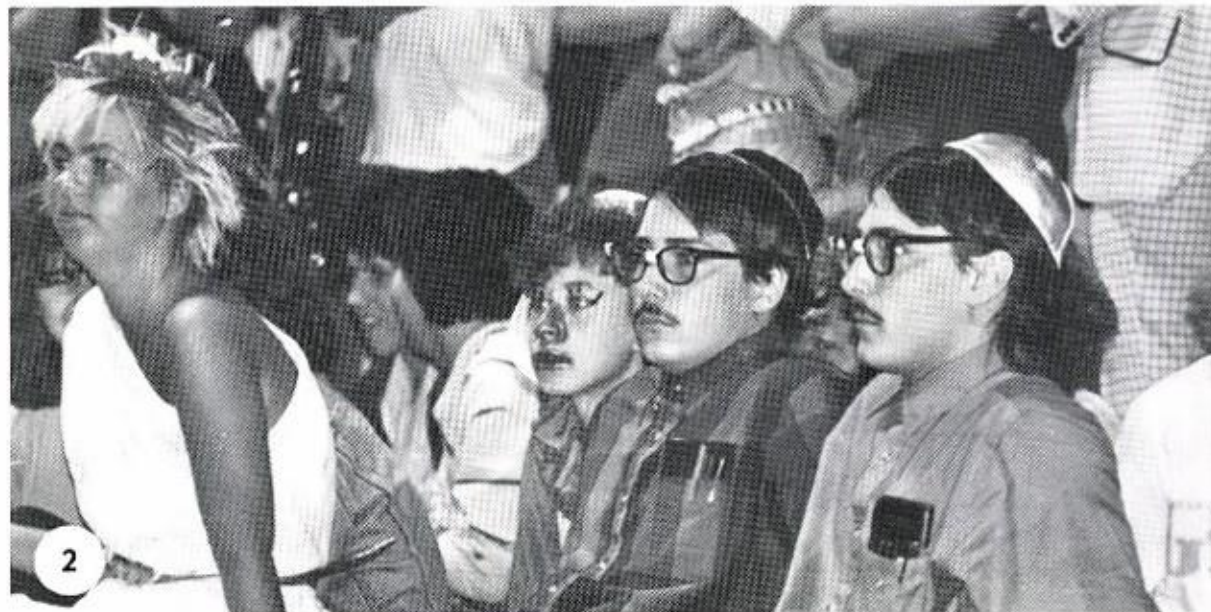

And The Junior Winners Are...

THOSE CRAZY MAY DAZE

Something exciting happened this year at L.H.S.— May Daze. This was a special week for the students—it was student appreciation week. Teachers wore special buttons stating their appreciation for students, also the cafeteria personnel gave us free fruit bars at lunch, WOW. The best part of the week was each grade was teamed up against each other in the events after school. Monday there was volleyball, Tuesday - Softball and Trivial Pursuit, Wednesday - flagball, Thursday - Slave Day, and Friday everyone was excused from school at 1:30 to enjoy such games as soda making, banana eating, the three-legged race, and the tug of war. Of course the SENIORS took first, sophomores-second, juniors-third, and freshmen-last.

Graduation 87

On behalf of myself and the rest of the graduating class of 1987 I would like to welcome parents, friends, and relatives to our commencement. We've come a long way and we're glad to have with us those who've supported us and been there when we needed them. Today is a proud day for all of us and we wouldn't be here without the help of our parents. I'm taking this opportunity to say thank you—it's well deserved.

To the class of '87 I'd like to say Thank You also . . . for making this year the absolute greatest that could ever be. We ARE Liberty High School. Just take a look at the people around you right now. Among them are your closest friends. We've grown up with each other, and today is the last time we'll all be together. We know each other so well - we've laughed together and cried together. We've gone through so much to get where we are today and the memories we share can never be replaced . . . I'm sure our senior year is many things to each of us, and we've all changed in the last nine months. 1987 was a year of learning about ourselves, a year of hard work, a year of togetherness, and yes, the year of the party. But together we have made the most of our senior year. We have learned not only through our schoolwork and with the help of our teachers, but through relationships, experiences, trips, and a lot of long talks. We've all had our share of crises which we will probably laugh about if we aren't already, and we've all eaten at McDonalds a LITTLE too often.

But 1987 was a year for Liberty Pride and accomplishment, not only in sports and academically, but personally as well — The graduating class of 1987 IS Liberty High School. And as we move on we'll all take a little bit of LHS with us. When we hear a certain song, or visit a certain place, the memories will remind us of what it meant to be a student at Liberty. We've learned to care about each other; we have shown it over and over again in the past year, and we've all gotten by with a little help from our friends. Through football season and bonfires, dances, basketball games, parties, prom, studyhall, skip days, and Monday mornings, we have stuck by each other and gotten everything out of LHS that we possibly could have. We have learned to laugh at ourselves and learn from our mistakes. Now we have our whole futures in front of us. As Ferris Bueller would say, "Life moves pretty fast. If you don't stop and look around once in a while . . . You could miss it."

Now is the time for all of us as seniors to resolve to take advantage of our opportunities, to appreciate our good fortune, and to look forward to the days to come. Our choices are limitless. With so much to look forward to and so much to look back on, we can hardly go wrong.

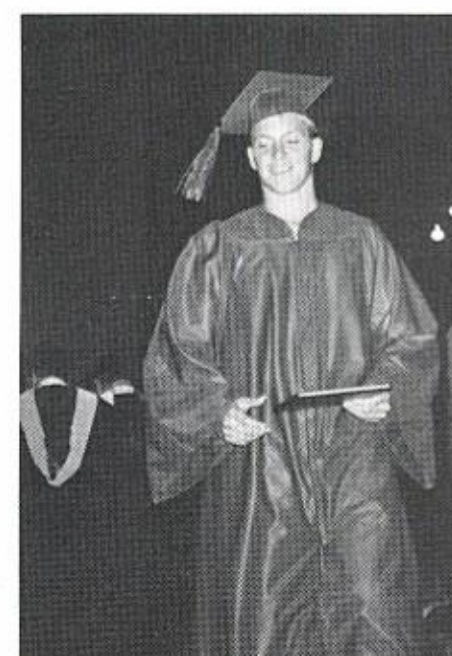

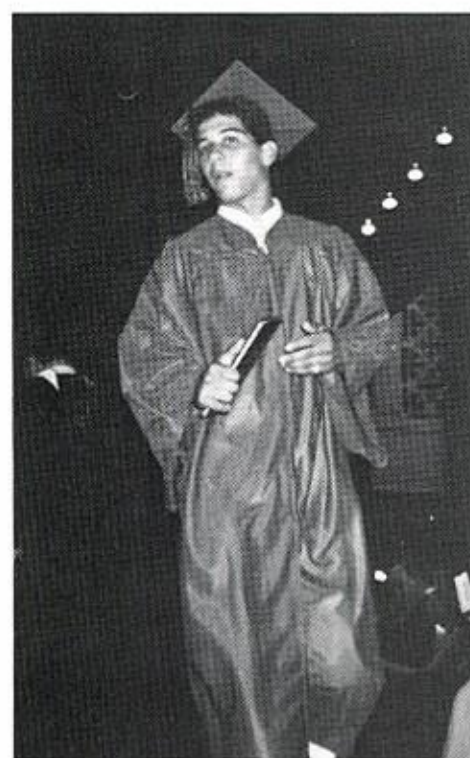

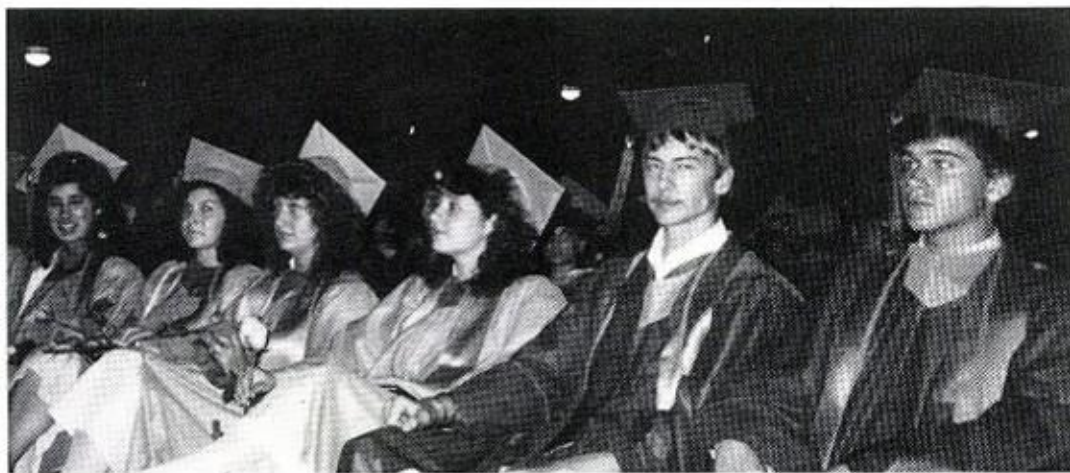

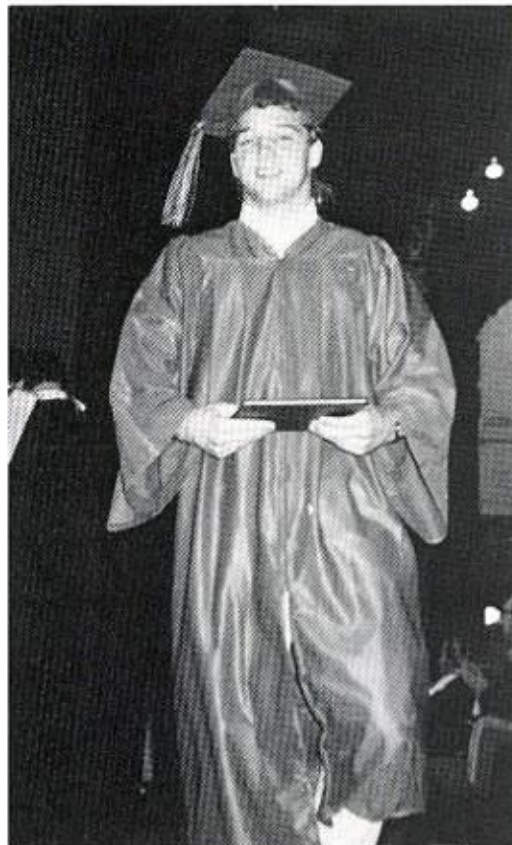

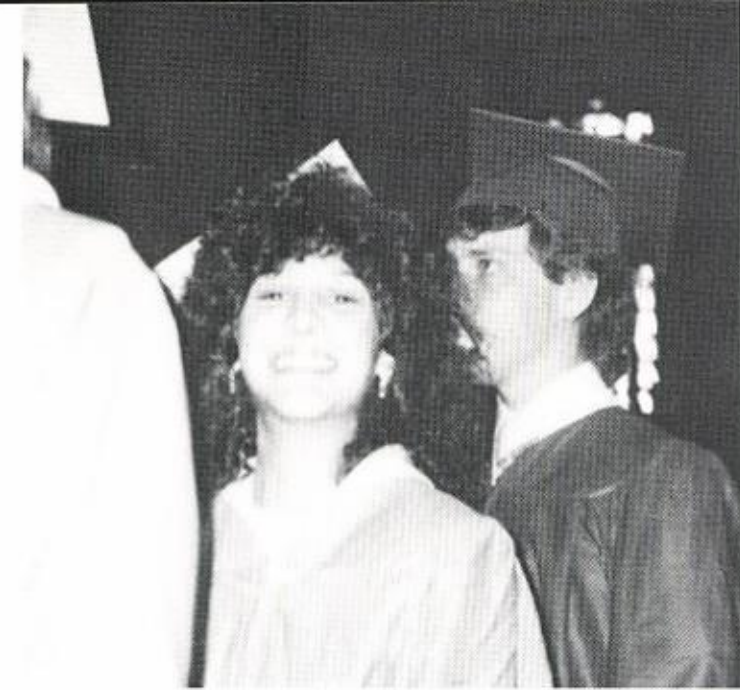

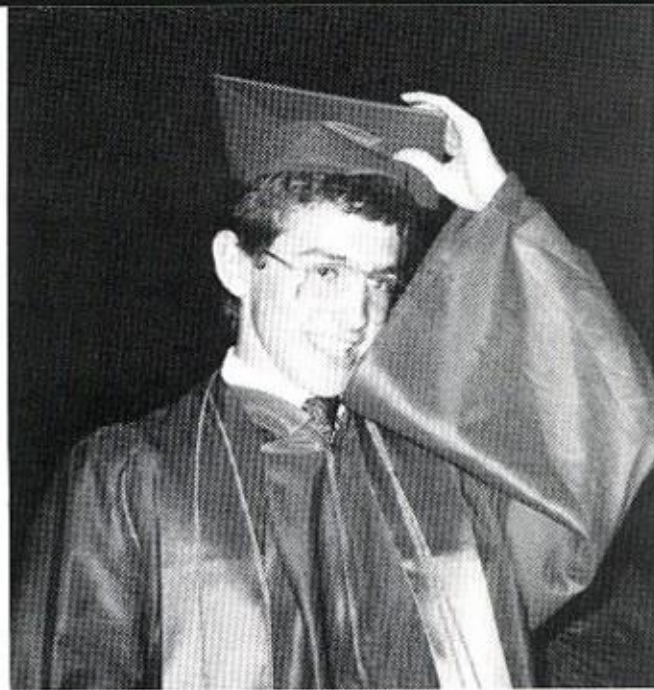

We can't overlook, however, one misfortune this year. We lost a member of our class, and if the seniors would, please stand now in a moment of silence for Randy Ralston whose life was taken from him at such a young age and is unable to be with us today Thank You.

Looking back, we can smile at the last year, but today we look forward to the future and anticipate what our lives will bring. We all have our dreams and the opportunity to make them come true. After today, we may not ever see some of our friends again; the four years at LHS have flown by and now seems to be the time to say good-bye. Well don't ever say good-bye to your friends but let the memories live. As we're together today, let us be together forever. The Class of '87 can never be forgotten. We can never forget each other. To quote our Japanese exchange student, Mesae Horii, "I wish I didn't have to leave my friends. I wish I could stay with you always."

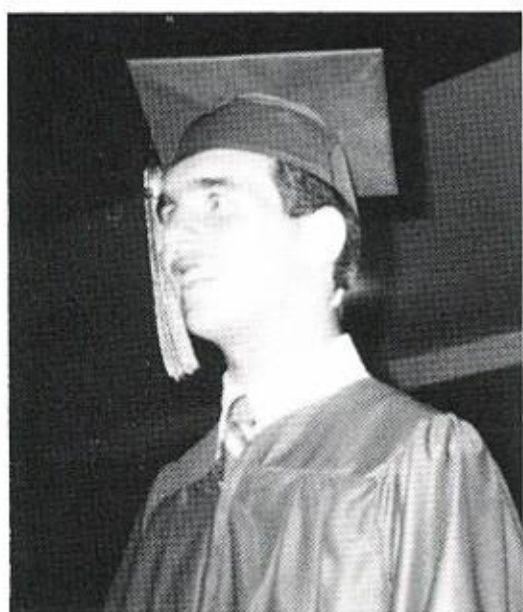

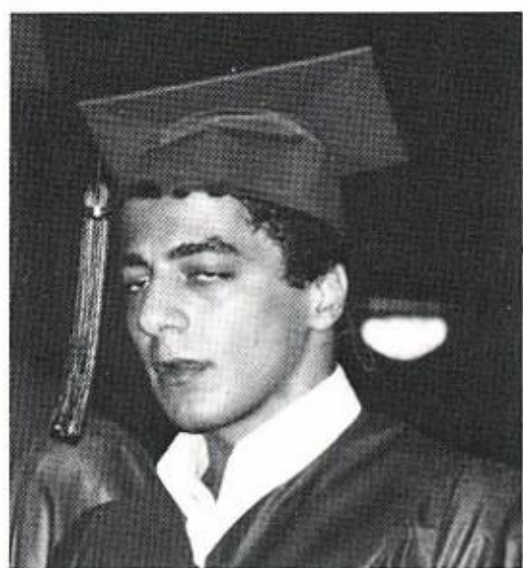

I love you guys.

Senior Class President

A New Beginning

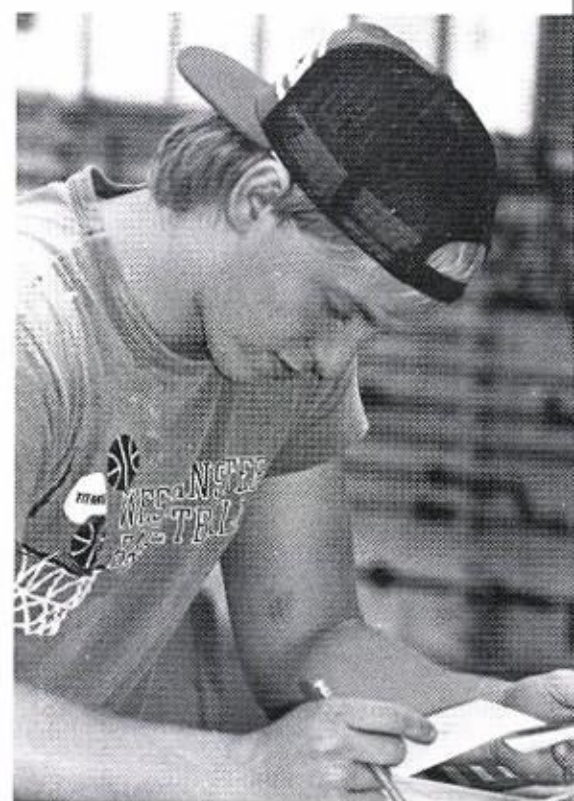

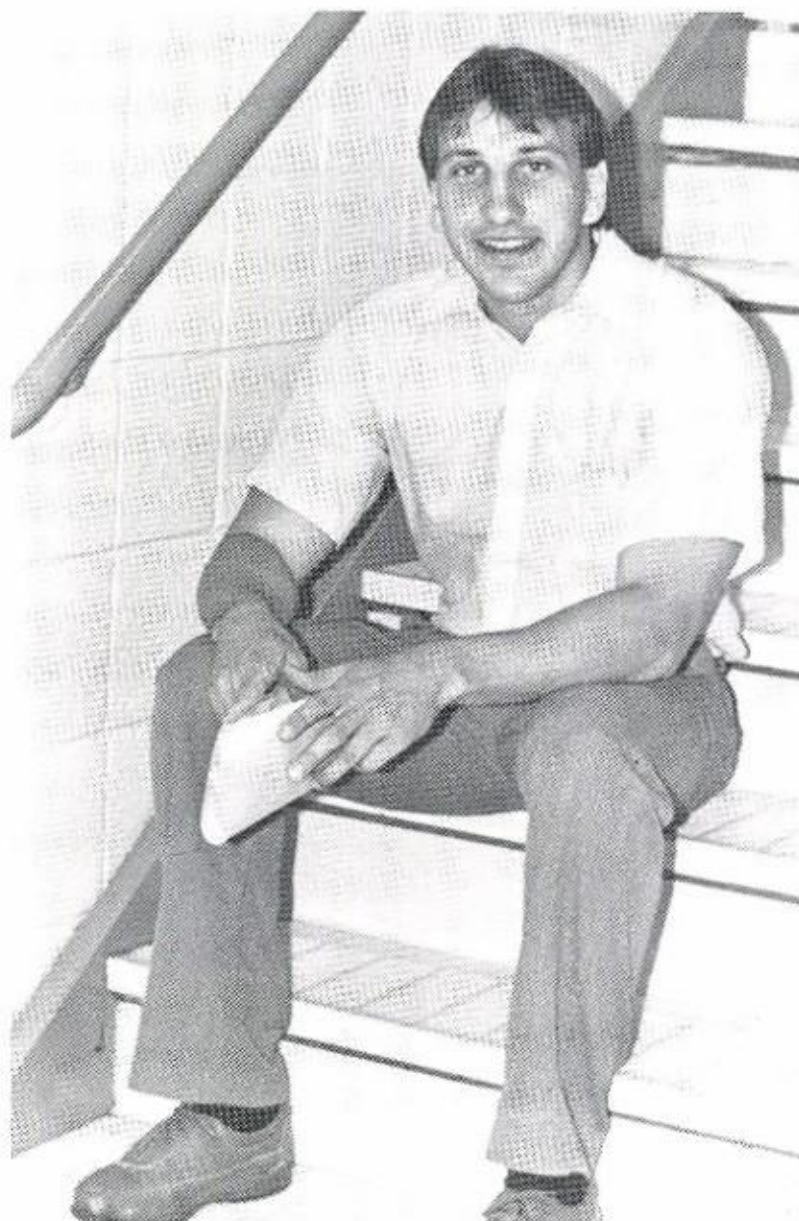

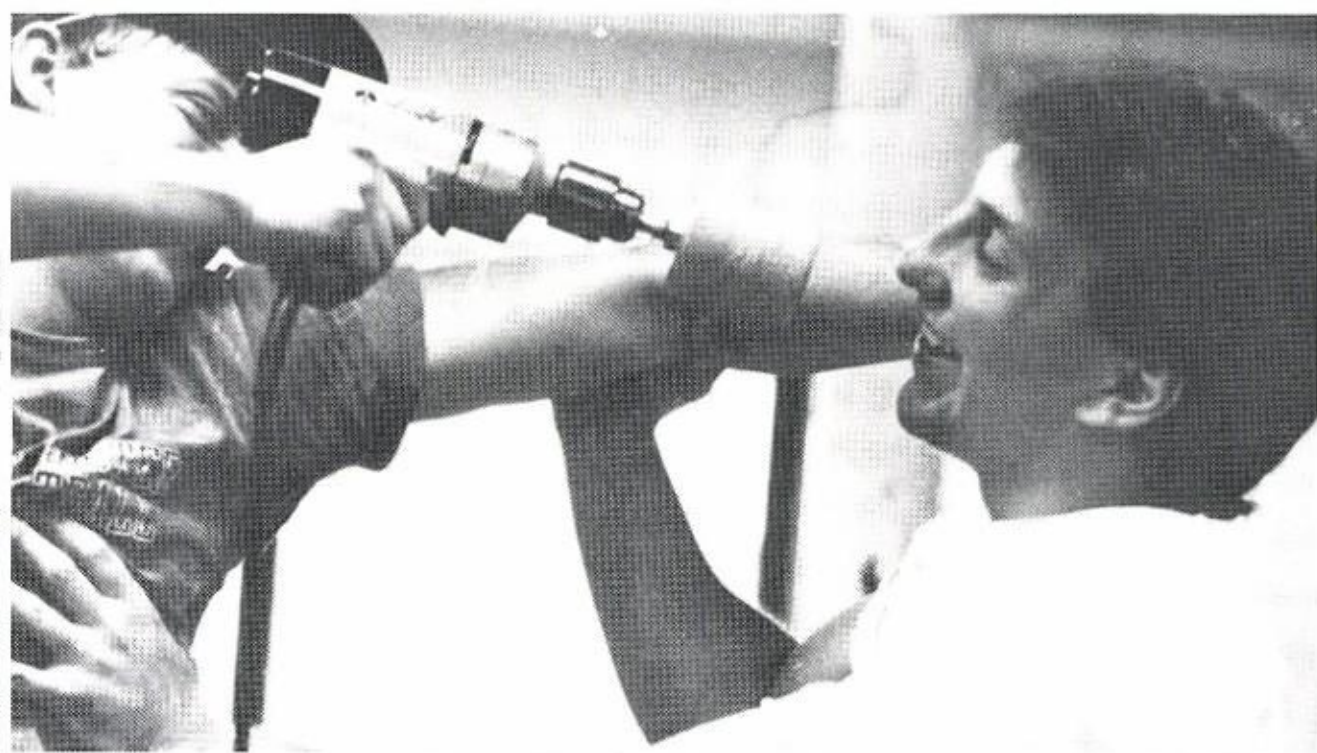

IN MEMORY OF . . .
RANDY RALSTON
A MEMBER OF THE TCJVS
AND THE CLASS OF 1987

Incline Thine ear, O Lord, unto our prayers, wherein we humbly pray thee to show Thy mercy upon the soul of Thy servant Randy, whom Thou hast commanded to pass out of this world, that Thou wouldst place him in a region of peace and light, and bid him be a partaker with Thy Saints. Amen

MR. PHIL Leads An Untrained Staff To A SUCCESSFUL ORACLE

The Oracle Staff graciously invites you to spend a typical Saturday afternoon at the office with us: Jill starts the day with a few candid shots, Dave and Mr. Phil try to settle the latest page dispute, Christa takes some time off to relax, Beth C. is busy typing body copies, Marla eyes a mistake, Dina gets frustrated, while Suzanne remains calm, Beth W. oversees Dave's layout, and Jodi fiddles with the keys. Well, except for a few missing members, that's it . . . We hope you enjoyed the tour,

Sincerely, The Oracle Staff: Ursula Rossi Marla D'Andrea, Dave Dull, Dina Maiorana, Beth Cosier, Christa Cywinski, Angela Gurnak, Jodi Julian, Michelle Wellmann, Beth Wollager, Jill Haines, Suzanne Cizmar.

LHS At A Glance

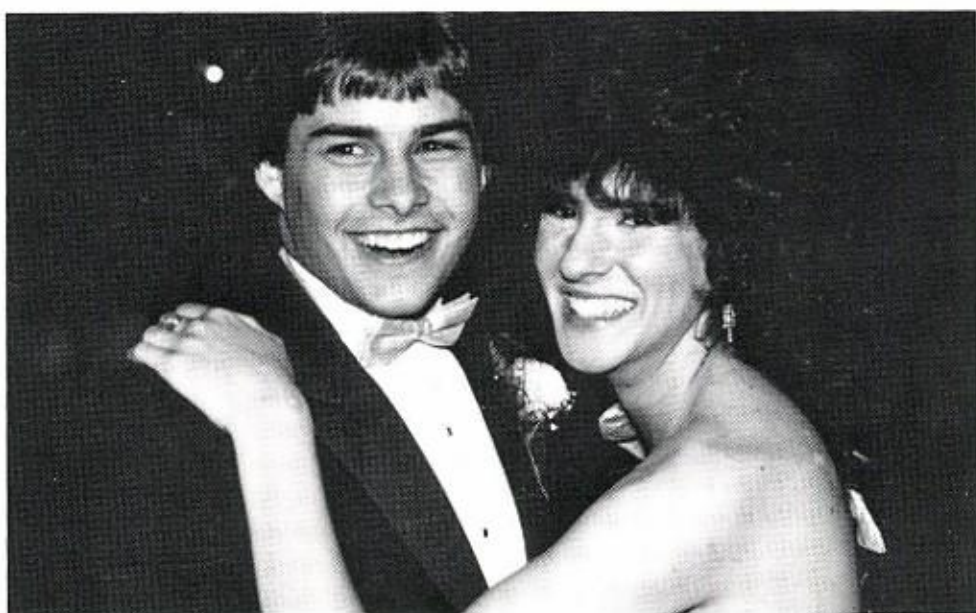

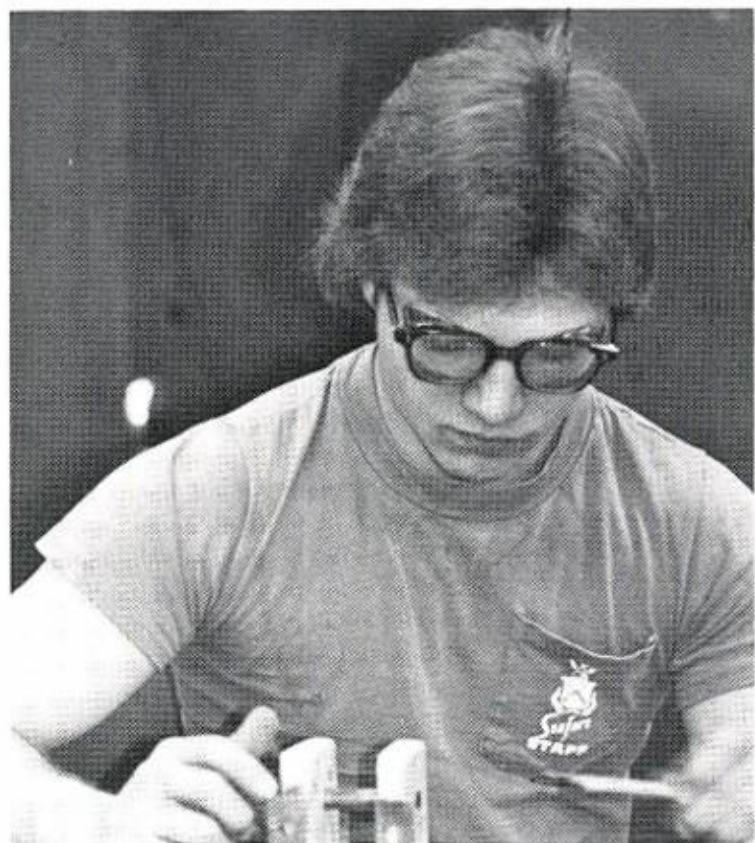

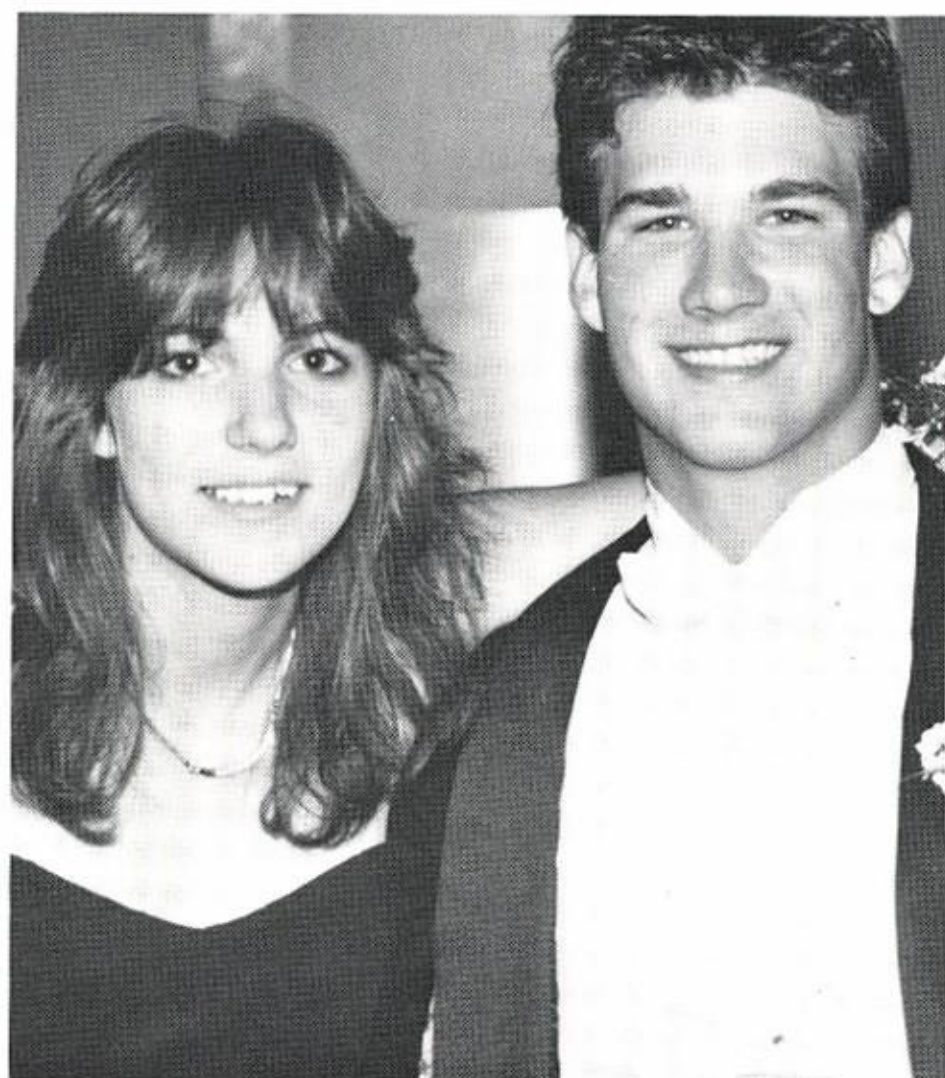

Karen and Jeff- what a good looking pair. School spirit! Seth Rose's famous Automobile. Starlight and Donna Humphreys wait patiently for Mr. Right. Greg Coleman's looking good. Joel Politi and Jon Landau flex those swimmer muscles. Joel experiments with alcohol-in school. Dave gives it his best "Magic" pass.

LHS: THE WAY

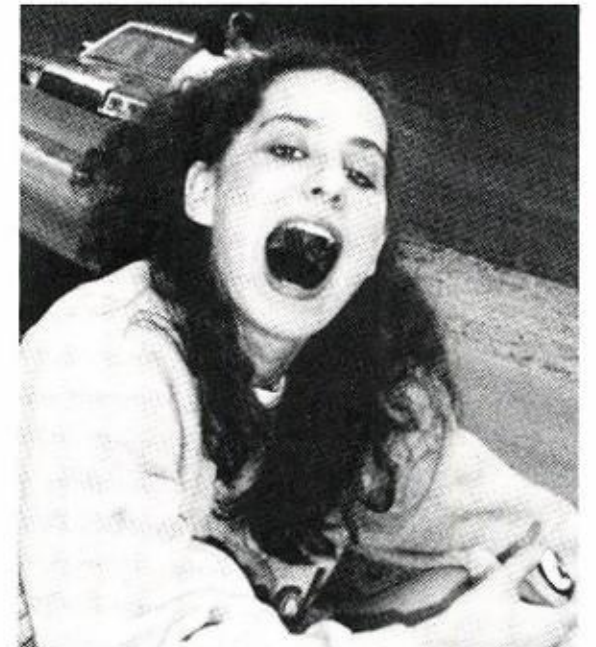

Could a cuter freshman ever be found? Dori doesn't think so. Amy and Shelly flash those pearly whites. Deborah Kleinman sure looks happy. Marla on one of her better days. Danielle and Moose - just hangin out. Jim Watt- what a ham. Angie baby and her new foster grants. Grace Lee - a confused flagline artist. Lori and Joel stick it out till June 14. Jim Bogan eyes his next move. Mike Orr wants to know where the party is at this weekend.

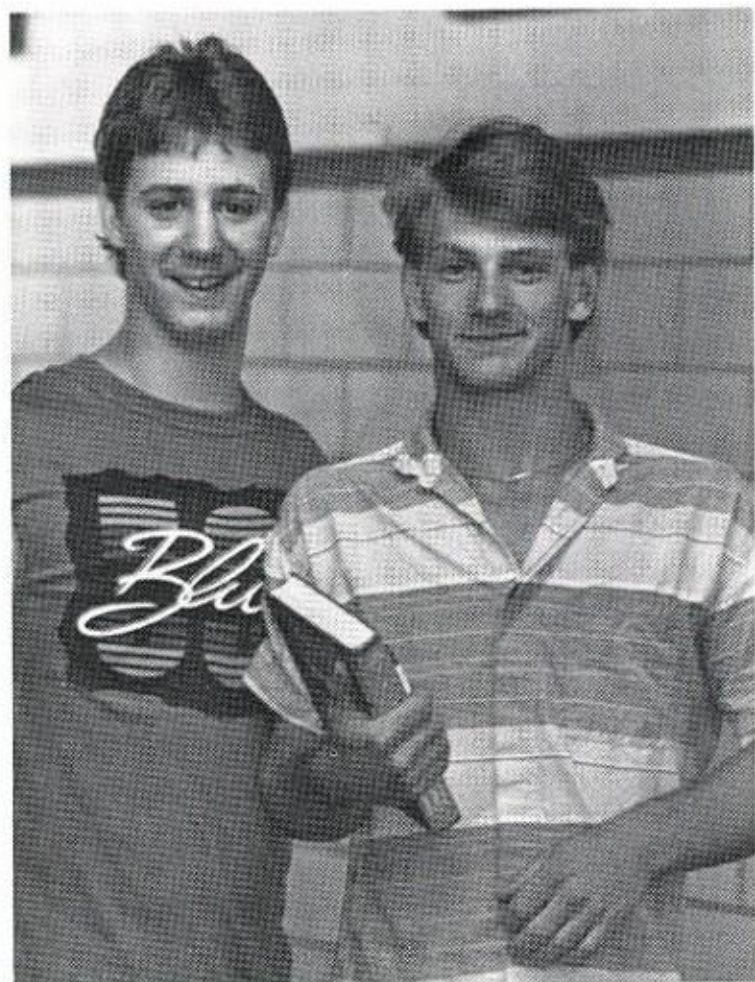

IT WAS . . .

Shari, Michelle, Michele, and Danielle think Geno makes a pretty sexy prince. Kara says forget that undressing me with your eyes bit. Chad's a happy fellow. Jimbo Bogan demonstrates the art of scubaing. Michelle raids her dad's wardrobe. Karen's giggles will go down in LHS history. Quiet: Nate's thinking. Dunkin' DeSalvo's at it again. The jubilant duo of Haire and Dycman react at their May Daze Victory. O-O-O ice cold milk and an Oreo Cookie- Sing it Susan! Coach Wagner chats with the team. Mindy, Suzanne, and Mesae- a photographer's dream. LHS office aids- a bunch of partying girls.

Look Who We Found!

LAST BUT NOT LEAST

Correction: These pictures were accidentally omitted from the Senior Poll pages; Jim Bogan and Kathy Schesler- Most Creative- and John Altier and Julie Lustig -Strongest-. Our apologies! The Oracle Staff.

EDITOR'S NOTES

Now, as a member of the graduating class of 1987 I look back over these four splendid years which have passed so quickly and I wish to think of those who deserve the hearty thanks. I am greatly indebted to my parents for my high school education and also to their unlimited sacrifices that I might have every advantage.

I owe my greatest gratitude to Mr. Phil Latessa for putting up with my anger and my many questions; "When is the deadline?, Where are the layout sheets?, How many picas?, Are the pictures back yet?" Our staff has worked tremendously hard this year to put the 1986-87 Oracle together. Due to the inexperience of our staff and advisor, lack of money, time, support, and not having a class period to do the oracle, it made it even harder to become organized.

The acts of today are the memories of tomorrow. The rich memories of Liberty we shall undoubtedly have for the future. In imagination we'll return to the old halls, old friends, old enthusiasms, undimmed; but in a truer and fairer light. Our paths will probably no longer be parallels; some of us may never meet again; and yet there is that tie of fellowship which binds us and will bind us to Liberty.

To the Class of 1987 Thank You for "The Best Years of My Life."

Editor,

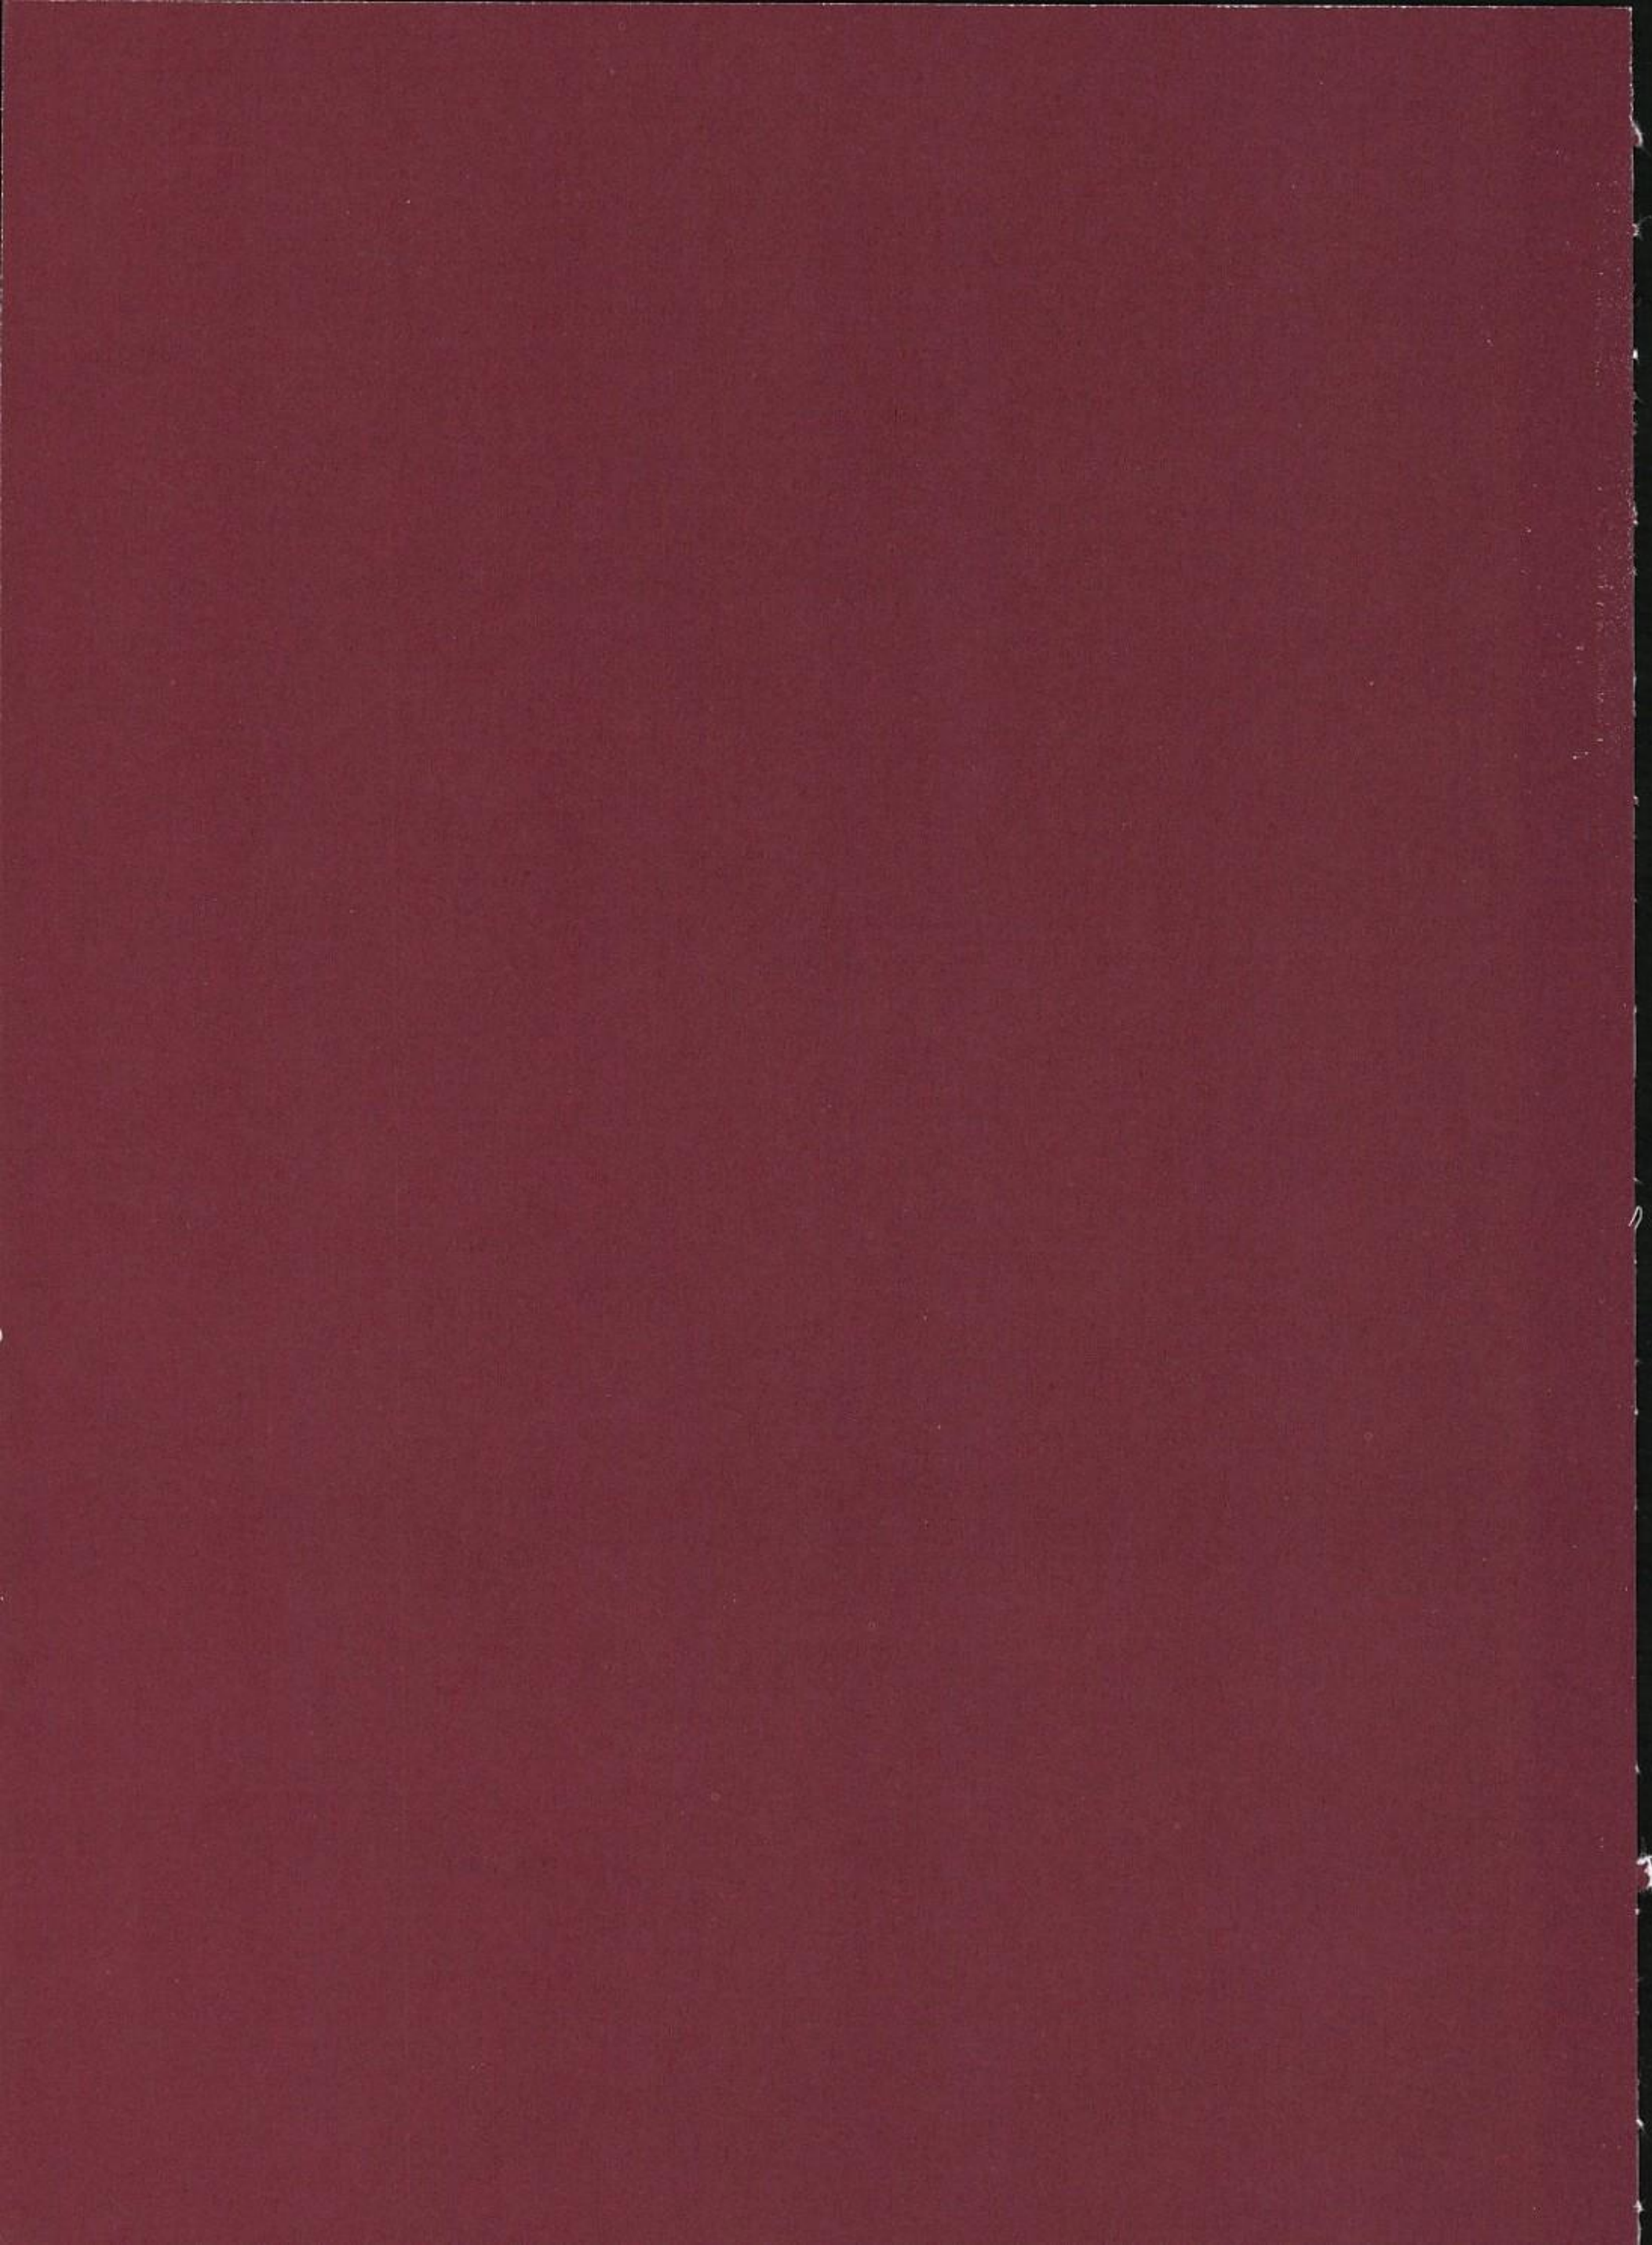

Ursula Jean Rossi

At the beginning of the year there was an announcement asking Juniors and Seniors to participate in producing another Oracle. Well we had our first meeting and about twenty people showed up. Positions were voted on and ad selling began. Mr. Latessa was confident that the 87 Oracle would be a successful one. As the meetings went on, the staff became smaller and smaller until it was the final ten—Marla, Dina, Christa, Dave, Michelle, Suzanne, Jodi, Beth, and Ursula—this was the 87 Oracle staff. Well we met our first deadline but after that the problems began and all through those problems Mr. Latessa was always there (except for that one fishing trip). Mr. Latessa was the best person to fill the position of Oracle Advisor. He sacrificed his Saturdays (9 till 3) and sometimes even bought us lunch. Without Mr. Latessa there would be no yearbook and no yearbook meant no memories. Mr. Latessa the 87 Oracle staff would like to thank you for your support, judgment, and sacrifices, and most of all your encouragement. You made the 87 Oracle work and for that we would like to thank you. We hope that you will always remember your first Oracle staff because they will always remember their only advisor.

To Mr. Latessa we dedicate the 87 Oracle.

Thanks for the memories
87 Oracle Staff
